THE DAILY GAZETTE.

PENNSYLVANIA.

THE Corry Republican is now published daily. Its columns show careful editing, and an adequate public support.

MAYOR DICK, of Meadville, offers two thousand dollars reward for the capture of the murderer of Christian Richards.

A LITTLE eight year old boy named John Johnson was run over and killed by the cars at Morgan and Co's. coke works Fayette county, last Monday.

VICE PRESIDENT COLFAX has accepted an invitation from the I. O. O. F. of Meadville, to deliver the oration at their celebration on the Glorious Fourth.

FISH spearing is the fashionable amusement in Lake Pleasant, Erie county; a Mr. Knapp spears about one hundred and fifty each evening, principally perch, sun fish and bass.

A CHEESE FACTORY is now in successful operation in Waterford, Erie county, where there is also a boot and shoe factory employing eighteen men and trading all over this end of the State.

MRS. JESSE P. CRAWFORD, of Luzerne township, Fayette county, had a tooth pulled recently and nearly died of the resulting hemorrhage which lasted for three days and was only stopped by a surgical operation.

EIGHT pastors of as many different denominations in Johnstown have issued a call for a Convention, to organize a Cambria County Sunday School Convention, to meet June 9th in the Johnstown Presbyterian Church.

At Carbondale, the tannery of Mr. Mears was in great danger. Several houses were burned near Dunmore, and Mr. Curtiss' saw mill was saved with difficulty, some of his lumber being burned. Several coal breakers were in danger.

THE physicians of Mercer county propose to keep a list of all those who cannot and will not pay for professional services, and at each meeting of the County Medical Society, to hand the names to the Secretary, that a complete roll of all the delinquents in the county can be furnished.

In Covington township, Messrs. Hawley & Co, lost six houses, steam saw mill, barn, and a large quantity of shingles and pine lumber. The tenants lost much of their furniture in the houses. A dwelling house of Hermans & Simpson was burned and a barn in Madison township. A large barn of Edward Mullen was burned at Gouldsboro. The Democrat reports another barn in Covington burned, owner's name not known.

MRS. ANNA CATHARINE KUNKLE died at Stroudsburg on the 10th ult., aged ninety-six years, nine months and thirteen days. She was the wife of Mr. J. G. Kunkle, living sixty one years and one month in the holy bonds of matrimony. They had fourteen children, one hundred and twenty-three grandchildren, four hundred and fifteen great grandchildren, five hundred and fifty great-great grandchildren, and a large number of great-great-great-grandchildren.

THE Waynesburg Messenger says: Meetings have been held and surveys made, with a view of adopting a route for the Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston railroad from Williamsport across the country, by Pigeon Creek, Ten Mile and Laurel Run to the mouth of Little Whiteley, instead of keeping the valley of the river, as heretofore contemplated. The friends of the route claim that it will be twenty miles shorter than the river route, and cost a million and a half dollars less.

THE fires on the mountains, in the eastern portion of the State, have been unusually destructive this spring owing to the long continued dry weather. The Scranton and Carbondale papers have accounts of heavy damage on the hills bordering the Lackawanna on both sides. Liggett's Gap was burned from Clark's Green down to the Valley; even pheasants being overtaken and killed by the flames. The steam saw mill, at the Green, was saved with difficulty, several thousand feet of lumber being burned.

THEY are making puddled steel at Allentown, which is said to be superior to any other in Philadelphia. It stood a tensile strain of 127,320 pounds to the square inch. A piece of the steel capped rail made by this process was lately tested at the Camden and Amboy Company's shop at Lambertville, New Jersey. It stood five thousand and five hundred blows, and the weld still remained perfect, thus demonstrating that it is peculiarly adapted to make the perfect rail, it having the great advantage over the Bessemer steel rail that this rail can be re-worked, whilst the Bessemer rail cannot. This steel, at this experiment, stood five hundred more blows than the best Bessemer steel rail stood at the same works.

THE Venango Citizen says: Mackey well No. 1, noticed last week as producing two barrels, has been torpedoed, and the yield materially increased. The Lock Well has increased in yield since our last issue. It is now producing twelve barrels per day. The McDonough well, about three hundred feet up the hill, on the Hamby farm, adjoining the Snyder farm, has been torpedoed, and is now doing about eight barrels. The Prentiss & Angel well, just put down on the Snyder farm, makes an excellent show, and is good for a fifty or seventy-five barrel well. This opens up a large tract of territory, which has as yet been undeveloped. The Philadelphia and Boston Company have made a good strike on their territory, on the face of the hill up from the lower trestle at Foster. This well started at about four barrels, was torpedoed last week, and is now doing about one hundred and twenty barrels. Well No 75, on the Snyder farm, owned by the Venango Central and Duck Creek Oil Company, put down last fall, but which had never produced over twenty barrels a day, was torpedoed on Thursday last, and is now doing two hundred barrels and increasing.

THE NORTHWEST.

ILLINOIS has 300,000 dogs.

IOWA has 410,168 children.

FARMERS in Wyoming plow with buffaloes.

INDIANA farmers now complain that their wheat crop will be too heavy.

ONE hundred and two mines in the White Pine district are being worked.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, has organized a Vigilance Society to prevent horse stealing.

THE lead caves of Maquoketa, Iowa, are turning out ore in large and paying quantities.

IT is estimated that there will be half a million of cattle driven to Kansas this season.

OVER fifteen million feet of pine logs have been safely boomed at the mouth of Elk river, Minnesota.

THE prospects are good for an abundant crop of peaches in Missouri, but strawberries are a failure.

THE Des Moines Bulletin figures up thirty-two candidates for Congress in Iowa, an average of five to the district.

THE Minneapolis Tribune publishes a street rumor that a regiment of cavalry is to be raised in Minnesota for the Indian war.

CARBON oil has been discovered in the town of Iola, in Waupaca county, Wis., and preparations are being made to sink wells.

A BILL passed the Minnesota Senate on Thursday authorising the Southern Minnesota railroad to connect its line with Northern Pacific.

WM. P. JAIROL has a bearing grape vineyard at Jerseyville, Ill., of five thousand vines, and is expecting a heavy yield the present year.

THE yield of gold in Montana for 1869 was over $17,000,000. The estimated yield for 1870 is $30,000,000. The population is about 45,000.

WATER from the salt well at Muskegon, Mich., where the drill has struck a bed of rock salt at a depth of 1,180 feet, is said to possess magnetic qualities.

THE Northwestern road of Iowa, has put over a million acres of lands in the market. These lands lie in the center of the State from the Mississippi to the Missouri, and in counties as good as any in the State.

REPORTS from the vicinity of Centralia indicate a fine fruit crop, and peach orchards generally in Southern Illinois promise more than an average yield.

ADVICES from Green Bay, say that the prospects of Government taking hold of the improvement of the Fox and Wisconsin rivers, has raised the price of real estate in that city 100 per cent.

THERE have been seventeen deaths from fever in the Michigan State Prison during the past three weeks, and the surviving prisoners would like to be sent home as they are frightened.

BETTER prospects for fruit were never more apparent than at present in Southern Iowa. Even peaches, supposed to be entirely killed, promise abundantly. The apple, pear and cherry trees are one sheet of bloom. Grapes open gloriously.

THE Chicago and St. Louis Railroad Company are setting out miles upon miles of osage orange plants to replace the fencing on their line, and it is said to be the intention to plant a hedge wherever the line requires to be protected from cattle.

IN Indiana more than average breadth of wheat has been sown this season, and thus far the prospects are most excellent for a heavy yield. In large and small fruits, despite the fear of the late frosts, there seems to be no possibility of failure.

THERE is a great fear among the settlers of Pembina that there is to be another Sioux massacre at that place. Troops have been ordered there. It is also stated that 200 Red Lake Chippewas are on the war path after their old enemies, the same Sioux.

IN Michigan the prospect for fruit of all kinds is most excellent. Wheat does not look so encouraging, late sown being badly killed. Some farmers have plowed up their late wheat and put in spring crops. Farmers are now busy putting in corn, of which a large breadth will be planted.

THE Trempeleau (Wis.) Record announces the appearance in the streets of that village of a little "pappoose" running around with a little calico band around his neck. This constituted his entire raiment. The little aborigine appeared as happy and as innocent as Adam before the fall.

THE total amount of copper smelted at Detroit, and other places, for the Lake Superior mines during the year 1869, was 30,909,549 pounds of mineral, which yielded 23,473,079 pounds of fine copper, giving an average yield of 75.97 per cent. The Franklin gives the highest average yield, 84.18.

AT the recent Mormon Conference in Salt Lake City, Brigham Young, in an address, spoke as follows: "On Sunday, after meeting, going through the gallery which had been occupied by those claiming, no doubt, to be gentlemen, and, perhaps, brethren, you might have supposed cattle had been standing around there and dropping their nuisances. Here and there were great quids of tobacco, and places a foot or two feet square smeared with tobacco juice. I wish the door-keepers, when, in the future, they observe any persons besmearing the seats and floor in this way, to request them to leave the house; and, if they refuse, and will not stop spitting about and besmearing their neighbors, just take them and lead them out carefully and kindly. It is an imposition for those claiming to be gentlemen to spit tobacco juice for ladies to draw their clothes through and besmear them, or to leave their dirt in the house. We request all addicted to this practice to omit it while in this house. Elders of Israel, if you must chew tobacco, omit it while in meeting, and, when you leave, you can take a double portion, if you wish to."

NEIGHBORHOOD POLITICS.

THE Republican primary election of Venango county will be held on the 28th of May.

HON. HENRY D. FOSTER is a candidate for the Democratic Congressional nomination in the 21st district.

THE Bedford Inquirer advocates the renomination by the Republicans of Bedford county of Hon. John Cessna as Representative.

MESSRS. AMOS LUSK, A. D. Wier and George W. Fleeger, candidates for Assembly in Butler county, have signed an agreement not to canvass the county for votes as is usually done. Commendable.

WM. J. GALBRAITH has been solicited to become a candidate for Congress in the 20th district and publishes a letter consenting to accept a nomination. C. W. Gilfillan is also announced as a candidate.

J. D. MCJUNKIN is a candidate for the Republican nomination to Assembly in Venango county, where Wm. R. Pardue, Henry Hubbs, H. B. Higson and J. H. McComb are candidates for County Commissioner.

H. L. RICHMOND, Harvey Henderson and Joshua Douglass, of Meadville, are announced as candidates for President Judge of Crawford county. S. L. Bates, F. C. Peck and Col. Geo. H. Bemus are candidates for Assembly.

EX-REPRESENTATIVE Bowman prints, in the Erie Gazette, a labored defence of his vote on the omnibus railway swindle. The Gazette extinguishes him with this sharp remark: "We do not propose a lengthy examination of Mr. Bowman's explanation. He has made a fatal admission that he voted for a bad measure for fear of losing the appropriation in this wicked, swindling scheme for Erie county."

THE Republican primary elections will be held in Indiana county June 4th. The following seem to be the candidates: A. W. Taylor, of Crawford, and G. W. K. Miner, of Fayette, for Congress; Wm. Shields, John McElhany, Thos. McMullin, Robt. McCreery, T. B. Elder, Daniel Ramey, Wm. T. Kinter and H. B. Miller for Assembly; James E. Riddle, Jacob Darr, Robt. W. Armstrong, David Berry, Geo. W. Bodenhamer and Isaac St. Clair for Commissioner.

BEAVER COUNTY primary elections will be held on the 28th of May, the candidates are: For Congress—Wm. Henry, Michael Weyand; Assembly—Dr. Wm. C. Shurlock, Henry Goehring, Dr. T. J. Chandler; Prothonotary—John Caughey, Samuel W. Reed; Commissioner—James Smith, Saml. Torrence, G. K. Shannon, G. W. Shroads, Samuel Nelson; Auditor—Jas. W. Johnson, Isaac Scott, John Christy; Jury Commissioner—William Barnes, James Warnock; Poor House Director—Gilbert Pendleton, Samuel McManamy.

ANNOUNCING Hon. Orange Noble as a candidate for the Senate in the Crawford district, the Erie Gazette pays a high compliment to his personal worth and public services, but asks more light on another point. How does he or any other candidate in Erie county stand, in reference to "the infamous scheme of the last Legislature to rob the State Treasury? It has been publicly announced by some of the originators of this fraud that it has not been killed by the Governor's veto, but only delayed; that a similar bill will be introduced this next winter and passed in defiance of the Governor's veto. If the Pennsylvania Railroad own the State, this may be done. But we are of those who believe the people rule and that our next Legislature will be composed of honest and intelligent men who will neither be bribed nor forced into the support of another such a bill." It is gratifying to see that the Republican masses of Erie county do not intend to be sold again.

A YOUNG colored man named Andrew Smith, was shot and killed near East St. Louis by a young German named De Lafayette Von Volkenburg, who states he was assailed by the deceased, with a demand for his money or his life, upon which a struggle ensued, during which Von Volkenburg secured the pistol and shot the assailant. The survivor gave himself up after the body was found, although no suspicion was attached to him. He is under arrest.

THE N. Y. Evening Post of Tuesday devotes its leading article to "Strawberry Shortcake," paying its respects to that article in the following language: "As an aid to indigestion and a short cut to dyspepsia, the strawberry shortcake is probably excelled by none and equalled by few of the many ingenious devices of the Yankee kitchen."

FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

XLIST CONGRESS,

(SECOND SESSION.)

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 13, 1870.

SENATE.

Mr. TRUMBULL presented a resolution of the Illinois Constitutional Convention for the removal of the National Capital to the Mississippi Valley. Read and tabled.

Mr. SUMNER introduced a bill supplementary to the Civil Rights act, giving equal rights to all citizens on railroads, steamboats and public conveyances, in theatres, hotels, public schools, etc., and provides penalties for infraction. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

A bill passed appropriating $225,000 for the construction of a breakwater at Lewes, Del.

Bills were reported to suppress drinking houses in the District of Columbia, and to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquor, and making an appropriation for the temporary relief of the poor of the District.

The Legislative appropriation bill was proceeded with.

The amendment to allow the refining of bullion by private parties was rejected.

Several hours were consumed in a discussion upon fixing the pay of certain officers of the Senate.

Amendments were adopted securing to naval officers and surgeons of posts the full compensation received by them under the act of 1841 until recently. This overrules an opinion of the Attorney General.

An amendment was also adopted fixing the salary of assistants in each executive department of the Second Controller, Controller of Currency, Commissioner of Customs, Solicitor, Register, Auditors of the Treasury, Commissioners of Pensions, Indian affairs and Land affairs, at $4,000 each; also an amendment continuing the office of Solicitor and Naval Judge Advocate by the usual appropriation of $3,500.

An amendment by Mr. TRUMBULL, making the compensation of female clerks, copyists and counters in departments the same as males occupying similar positions, was discussed, without action, until the Senate adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The bill for pensions to the children of Commander Williams of the Oneida having been reported adversely last night and tabled, Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, entered a motion for reconsideration.

Mr. KNOTT made a report from the Conference Committee on the Arkansas Hot Springs Reservation bill, which was agreed to.

Mr. KELLEY, of Pennsylvania, made a personal explanation relative to allusions of his made some time since to the editor of the St. Louis Democrat, which had repeated the lie that he was the owner of large iron works and one of the owners of the Bessemer process. He had read a letter from the editor, Colonel Grosvenor, stating the article was written by a gentleman left in charge, and he had already contradicted the story.

Mr. SCOFIELD reported a bill for the relief of widows and orphans of the Oneida, allowing twelve months' pay from date of loss. Passed.

The bill for the restoration of Capt. Dominick Lynch to the active list of the Navy was passed also the bill for the re-appointment of Lieut. Commander Joshua Bishop, who had been dismissed.

Several minor bills from the Naval Committee were also passed.

The bill appropriating $100,000, now under the control of the Secretary of State, belonging to the Japanese indemnity fund, as prize money to the officers and crew of the Kearsage, for the destruction of the Alabama, was opposed by Messrs. MAYNARD and FARNSWORTH, and withdrawn to be remodeled.

The bill to pay $850,000 to Charles H. Whitney, contractor of the iron-clad Keokuk, was referred to Committee of the Whole.

Mr. DAWES, Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, reported a bill appropriating $325,000 gold coin to be paid the British Government, under the award of commissioners to settle the claims of the Hudson Bay and Puget Sound Companies, the award fixing the payment of $650,000 in two annual instalments, the first of which to be paid on the 10th of September.

Mr. LAWRENCE opposed the bill because the award was outrageously large, and because he was opposed to the payment of any claims until provision was made for the liquidation of our claims against Great Britain.

Mr. DAWES did not uphold any such standard of morality. He did not hold he was absolved from his obligations because somebody else don't perform his. Such a rule would be a disgrace to any civilized nation.

The bill was passed.

The Tariff bill was taken up in Committee.

The paragraph under consideration was amended to read: On flour or meal of oats, wheat, rye, corn or buckwheat, one cent per pound.

Additional paragraphs were inserted on middlings, ship stuffs, shorts, and flour and meal of grain of any kind, ground or mixed, for feed, twenty per cent. ad valorem; on wheat thirty cents, rye twenty cents, barley twenty-five cents, corn fifteen cents, and oats fifteen cents per bushel.

Mr. JUDD moved to strike out the paragraph taxing malt thirty per cent. ad valorem. Rejected—54 to 70.

Mr. STEVENSON moved to reduce the duty to twenty-five per cent. Rejected.

A motion to strike out the paragraph taxing garden fruits, &c., ten per cent., was rejected.

The House took a recess.

Evening Session.—The paragraph taxing oranges, lemons, &c., ten per cent. ad valorem, was amended by increasing the duty to fifteen per cent., with a view to protecting the orange groves of the South.

The duty on rice was fixed at two cents; peanuts, unshelled, two cents, and shelled three cents.

The Committee rose.

A committee of five, Messrs. Davis, Judd, Degener, Cox and Getz, as appointed to represent the House at the invitation of the Washington German Associations at the laying of the corner-stone of the monument to General Steuben, at Schutzen Park, Monday.

Adjourned to Monday.

HARRISBURG.

The Case of Dr. Schoeppe before the Supreme Court—A Question as to the Application of the New Law—Brilliant Wedding.

HARRISBURG, May 13.—The Schoeppe case came up in the Supreme Court this forenoon on a writ to review the evidence in the lower Court, as per recent act of the Assembly. The attorneys for Schoeppe—Miller and Hepburn—filed the petition of Schoeppe, to which the District Attorney, Maglarhan, entered the plea that the case ended on the 14th of February last, and that when the Legislature passed the bill, on 15th of February this case was not pending, and could not be governed by the new law. Miller and Hepburn filed the replication of the plaintiff in error, and Maglarhan filed the demurrer thereto. Chief Justice Thompson said positively and emphatically that he believed the case was closed on the 14th, and was not pending when the act of the Legislature was passed on the 15th, and he could not see how judgment could possibly be reopened now. The case was postponed till the 23d inst., when this point will arise in the argument. Court adjourned till Monday morning.

Hon. Richard J. Haldeman, Democratic Congressman from Cumberland District, Pennsylvania, was married last night to Miss Maggie Cameron, daughter of Senator Simon Cameron, and there was a briliant party at General Cameron's residence.

THE FENIANS.

Report of the Concentration of the Clans in The Northwest Confirmed—Three Hundred at St. Paul.

CHICAGO, May 13.—The report telegraphed yesterday relative to concentration of Fenians at Duluth is confirmed by a newspaper published at that point. The St. Paul Press has news of the mustering of Fenian clans in various parts of Minnesota, and one party is now en route to Red River overland.

There is now at St. Paul a Fenian force of about three hundred awaiting arrangements for transportation and subsistence before commencing to march to Red River. It will probably proceed by the usual mail route, but may possibly go to Fort William to oppose the landing of the Canadian expedition.

General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, May 13.—In the Methodist Conference to-day a petition to abolish the office of Presiding Elder was non-concurred in. The Christian Advocate is to be increased in size. A book is to be published defining a uniform system of church architecture. A periodical called The Home Circle is to be published. The proposition to strike the word "south" from the title of the Methodist Church here represented was referred back to the Conference. Dr. Summer's "Commentaries on the two Books of the New Testament" were approved and commended to the Church. A long debate on the abolition of the itineracy and substitution of the pastoral system was in progress when the Conference adjourned. It is believed that a large majority will vote for adhesion to the original system of itineracy, and a decree that no minister can remain in one place longer than two years. Drs. Cottrell, of Montgomery, Ala., and Edwards, of Virginia, are the eloquent advocates of a thorough reform and change in the system of church government and of the abolition of itineracy.

NEWS BY CABLE.

American and English Rival Yachts—Double Murder at Chelsea, England—Formidable Revolution in the Argentine Republic, South America—Supplementary Postal Treaty with North Germany—Capture of Cuban Gen. Golcouria's Companions.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, May 13.—The Post says the alterations made have greatly improved the yacht Sappho and the Cambria will probably never be made to equal her. In the last race the Cambria showed bad form in her sailing, and, if nothing else, disparity of size should have forbidden the race, if the question of build was to be a decision.

A clergyman, residing at Chelsea, and his housekeeper were brutally murdered by a workman, a former employe, who was arrested carrying off the remains of the housekeeper.

SOUTH AMERICA.

LISBON, May 13.—The mail steamer from Rio Janeiro and South American ports has arrived. A formidable rebellion had broken out in the province of Entre Rios. The Argentine Government was hurrying forward troops to the scene of disturbance. There had been some fighting, but without decisive result.

General Urquiza, native of Entre Rios, and ex-Dictator of the Argentine Confederation, was shot and mortally wounded by an assassin.

The Brazilian volunteers who took part in the war in Paraguay were returning to Rio, where they were received with great rejoicing.

The Diplomatic Conference at Asuncion for the settlement of the affairs of Paraguay, had terminated, and the Argentine and Brazilian Ministers were on their way to Buenos Ayres.

CUBA.

HAVANA, May 13.—Diego and Gaspar Agnero, companions of General Goulcouria, were captured on Guanaba Island by marines from the Spanish gunboats, and are now en route to Havana under guard. A court martial has been summoned for their trial.

The American or English Colonel who was with Gauicouria died of starvation or exposure. It is supposed Ryan had pilots, and succeeded in escaping from the island.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, May 13.—The Reichstag has ratified the supplementary postal treaty between the United States and the North German Confederation.

The Emperor of Russia has arrived here.

MARINE NEWS.

QUEENSTOWN, May 13.—The disabled steamship Siberia arrived to-day, in company with the steamer Batavia, which sailed hence for New York last Tuesday.

ST. LOUIS.

The Smash-Up on the Missouri Pacific Railroad—Arrival of Dead Bodies—Additional Names of Killed—Coroner's Inquest.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, May 13.—The train having the bodies that were killed by the collision at Eureka yesterday arrived about 2 o'clock this morning. The Coroner will hold an inquest this morning.

The following additional names complete the list of killed: James S. Smith, Seymour, Indiana; M. Ballentine, Sedalia, Missouri; A. S. Flint, St. Louis, Missouri; George W. Kiger, Cornelia Station, Johnson county, Missouri; a young man supposed to be E. R. Spaulding, Boston; G. W. Tucker, Watersville, Kentucky; Christian Rodenberg, Leavenworth; E. R. Wilson, residence unknown; William Taylor, of the firm of Best, Tenner, Smith & Co., New York; James D. McKee, Anderson, Kentucky.

The only additional wounded are: Ira P. Warner, United States express messenger and Maria Clark, colored. The Republican reporter gives the following description of the collision and wreck: The express train had five passenger cars and a baggage car, and the freight train was a long heavy one. At the point of collision there is an embankment fifteen feet high, where the road curves so sharply that two approaching trains cannot see each other until close together. A boy standing beside the engineer, Jackson, was the first to observe the smoke-stack of the approaching freight engine entering the curve at the east, just as the express entered the west. He pointed and directed the attention of Mr. Jackson to the danger. Brakes were immediately whistled down, the engine reversed, and the speed of the train was somewhat checked, but no application of human power could brake up the heavy freight train and bring it to a halt under half a mile. The two engines rushed at each other like malign and enraged monsters, grappled with a tremendous crash, reared from the track in mortal wrestle, and fell into helpless and disjointed fragments to the ground. The shock was terrible. The tender, baggage car and the two forward baggage cars of the express train, on one side, and the tender and several box cars of the freight train, on the other, rushed into the crash with their respective engines, leaving frightful ruins, spattered with the blood of forty human beings, entrapped and mutilated, beneath its shapeless mass. The two engines were driven with such force into each other that it was almost impossible after the collision to distinguish the parts of one from the other. The crushed cars were jammed together, the cars being shivered into long slivers, and the seats, wheels, trucks and iron blended into an indescribable heap, that rolled off down the embankment. The three rear cars of the express train shared the concussion, but escaped the fate of the two forward ones. After the collision, they were found standing stiff and still on the track, with their brakes close up, showing that the brakesmen had done their duty well, in response to the engineer's whistle, before they leaped from the train. The spectacle was one that it was impossible to view without absolute horror. As a soldier passenger said: "I have been through many battles, but I never saw such a terribly sickening scene as this was. It was chaos and death combined." The engines were both on the same side of the embankment and were but a heap of battered fragments. Scattered around on all sides were portions of the wreck, and the scene was one of confusion twice confounded. The baggage car and the one near to it were shivered as if by an internal explosion, and the mass of broken timbers, iron rods and other portions of the cars, looked like the frantic work of some infernal agency.

The Coroner's jury have been taking evidence in the collision case most of the day, but nothing new elicited.

The body of Andrew W. Stratton, of New Brighton, Pa., was claimed this morning, and will be sent home for interment. All bodies not before claimed will be buried in the Bellefontaine Cemetery to-morrow.

Frank Holt, who, with his little daughter, was killed, was en route from some point in Kansas to Westfield, Ohio, to see a sick wife, in response to telegraphic summons. His little boy Myron, who was also on the train and somewhat hurt, is now at the residence of M. D. Lewis, near Glencoe, Mo., where he will remain until sent for.

Foreign Items.

—The English House of Commons has rejected the proposition for female suffrage, Mr. Gladstone declared himself against it.

—The London Times urges the prohibition of the Flourens demonstration in Hyde Park to-morrow, as calculated to result in rioting and humiliation to the authorities.

—Later advices from South America state a revolution has broken out in the Province of Entre Rios, in the Argentine Republic, headed by the Revolutionists Lopez and Jordan. The Government troops attacked the rebels and a sanguinary battle was fought, resulting in the killing and wounding of a number of revolutionists. The insurrection has assumed a formidable aspect, and threatens to involve the country in a protracted civil war.

—In the British House of Commons, last night, the Postmaster General stated that the Atlantic Steamship Company persisted in their refusal to take the only compensation Postmaster General Cresswell was empowered to give. Any amelioration of the mail service between Great Britain and the United States was therefore at present impossible.

NEW YORK CITY.

State Aid to Charitable Institutions—Congregational Union Anniversary—Banquet to Whittier—Conflagrations in the Mountains—Insane Assassin, McFarland—German Patriots of 'Forty-eight—Love and Murder—The Fenians.

NEW YORK, May 13, 1870.

STATE AID TO CHARITIES.

Arrangements are making for a meeting of all the Catholic priests of this city, who are to decide upon the expediency of receiving State aid in support of the charitable institutions of that church. A number of priests are opposed to accepting such aid. They also hold that no money raised by taxation should be given to the schools or asylums of any church. They also aver that denominations outside of Catholic communities will suffer more seriously by the proposed withdrawal of State aid than their church.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION ANNIVERSARY.

The anniversary of the American Congregational Union, in the Brooklyn Academy of Music last night, was attended by a crowded audience, the exercises being more largely attended and enthusiastic than any thus far during the anniversary. Henry Ward Beecher presided. Dodsworth's band furnished the music. Rev. Drs. Ray, Palmer and Theodore L. Cuyler, Rev. O. B. Crane, of Hartford, and President Merriman, of Ripon College, were the principal speakers. Dr. Palmer announced that more than $50,000 in aid of feeble churches had been raised during the past year, thus securing an additional gift of $50,000 from Henry O. Brown, made on the condition that the former amount be obtained.

THE POET WHITTIER.

The Union League gave a reception to John G. Whittier last evening. Jackson S. Shultz presided, and the guest was welcomed by Luther R. Marsh. Mr. Whittier replied by thanking them all for the kindness shown him, and said he considered the honor not due to him, but to his native State rather; that this club, which for so long a time had been known and recognized throughout the country for its public spirit, patriotism and humanity, had conferred an honor upon his State, and the kindness and hospitality of the club he would never forget. Remarks were afterwards made by Salem H. Wells, T. B. Vandusen and ex-Governor Dennison.

THE FIRES IN THE WOODS.

The papers continue to give graphic accounts of the terrible devastation and destruction of property which has been caused by the conflagration that is now raging in the woods and among the mountains in Sullivan, Orange, Madiron and other counties in this State. The fire extends over a hundred miles of territory, and the loss is already estimated at five millions of dollars. In the night time the spectacle of the burning mountains is both grand and startling. It is feared that a family living near Deposit Station, on the line of the Railroad, have been surrounded by the flames and roasted alive.

PATRIOTS OF 'FORTY-EIGHT.

The Baden patriots of '48 and '49 held a festival in Jones' Woods to-day. Appropriate emblems and flags were hung from tree to tree. Speeches were made by General Sigel, Senator Schurz and others. The festival will close with a grand ball to-night.

LOVE AND MURDER.

Sylvanus Schmidt entered a boarding house kept by Miss Welles, in Williamsburg, at 67 South Third street, to-day, and without uttering a word drew a revolver and fired at the woman. The ball grazed her temple. He immediately drew the revolver upon himself and emptied three cartridges into his head. He was not dead late to-night. The two had been "engaged."

CONDITION OF MCFARLAND.

At a meeting of the Medico Legal Society last night, Dr. Hammond said: "That McFarland is at present in such a physical and mental condition as to render him liable, upon comparatively slight cause, to another explosion of mania, is a fact in regard to which repeated examination leaves no doubt upon my mind."

REGISTRATION.

The registration to-day for the May election was as follows: White voters, 9,922; colored, 1,667; total addition to the registry of December election, 11,589. The present registry is 175,580. The largest number of colored voters registered in one ward was 655, in the Eighth Ward.

THE FENIANS.

The Executive Committee of the Fenian Brotherhood was in session all day. It is positively asserted that troops and officers have left within the past few days for the border.

A CANARD.

A foolish canard that McFarland had been shot by a well-known journalist attained much currency, and occasioned no little excitement to-night.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The colored voters were registered to-day for next Tuesday's election.

Judge Cardozo granted a motion to file a supplemental complaint in the case of Fisk against the Susquehanna Railroad.

A case is before the Superior Court involving the validity of an Indiana divorce.

To-day having been set apart in the Methodist churches of this city as a fast day in memory of Bishops Kingsley and Thomson, appropriate services were held and largely attended.

The celebrated trotting horse Lady Thorn has been sold for $30,000.

General Chas. K. Graham to-day declined the nomination for Alderman, tendered him by the Republican Convention.

The Seventh Regiment will not go to Chicago.

Arrived, steamer Doran, from Bremen.

Bergh has, at the desire of Senator Sumner, prepared a bill for the prevention of cruelty to animals on railroads.

Henry Bergh has been re-elected President of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The first game of the regular home and home match of base ball between the Athletics of Philadelphia, and Unions of Morrisiana, was played to-day at Tremont. Unions won—7 to 6—after an excited game. The Atlantics, of Brooklyn, beat the Resolutes, of Elizabeth, N. J., this afternoon—19 to 0.

H. Woodruff, a church officer, arrested last month in Hoboken, charged with swindling several parties, including three churches, of a heavy amount of money, was to-day discharged, the affidavits being insufficient to prove the charges.

KANSAS.

Fearful Diabolism—Six Human Fiends—One Killed in the Hellish Work, Four Caught and Lynched, and the Other in Custody.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FORT SCOTT, May 13.—An account of the most diabolical affair ever recorded is published in to-day's Monitor. On Tuesday six men, either Texans or straggling outlaws from the Indian Territory, came to the town of Ladore, a few miles south. After drinking all day they went to the boarding house of J. N. Roach and asked to stay all night. Being refused on account of their drunken condition, one of them knocked Roach insensible with a revolver, and then went to the bed occupied by two daughters of Roach, aged twelve and fourteen, and ravished them during the entire night, using a knife to accomplish their purpose. Roach revived after a time, but feared to stir, knowing he would be killed if he did so. He describes the cries and entreaties of the girls as heart-rending. A quarrel arose among the demons, and one was shot dead while in the act of satisfying his lust. At daybreak the party fled, one taking with him to the woods the youngest girl. The town was immediately roused and parties started in every direction to search for the fiends. The one with the girl was soon overtaken, and hung to a tree. Two others were found secreted in the town and hung to the same tree. The remaining two were also captured, one of them hung, and the other one at last accounts was in the custody of the citizens, but will probably share the fate of his companions. The universal verdict here is that in this instance at least the summary manner of the infliction of punishment was entirely justified.

The Gallows at Reading.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

READING, May 13.—John Deal alias Zachariah Snyder, murderer of Richard Harlow, was executed this morning.

An appeal comes from the citizens of Richmond, in the form of an address to the people of the United States, in regard to the condition and circumstances of the sufferers by the recent calamity in that city. Of three hundred and fifty persons involved in the fall of the flooring, sixty-five have died, and many more are seriously injured. The families both of the dead and the injured are now suffering, in many instances, for even the necessaries of life. Invoking the spirit of charity, in its broadest sense, without reference to political or social diversities of feeling, the committees ask, in the interests of humanity, the benevolence of the entire country. Contributions are to be sent to Miss E. L. Van Dew, Postmistress at Richmond, Va., and President of the Relief Association.

—The steamer Japan, from Hong Kong April 12 and Yokahoma April 22, arrived at San Francisco yesterday, with 1,400 passengers. American Minister Low and family left Shanghai for the north April 8th. The imperial forces had been twice defeated in the provinces, and the leading General killed. The news of the death of Mr. Burlingame was received with general regret.

—In the Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, at Baltimore, yesterday, the report on the ritual was discussed at length. The portion referring to the use of the Commandments and beatitudes was adopted. That including the Apostles' creed was rejected.

—It is reported that many of the Greeley Colony in Colorado are very sick of their new home, being set down on the prairie without anything, and that they are scattering to other points or going home.

THE CAPITAL.

Appointments—Treasury Receipts and Disbursements—Canadian Fisheries—Exequatur Revoked.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 13, 1870.

APPOINTMENTS.

The following nominations by the President were sent to the Senate to-day: Geo. W. Dent, Appraiser of Merchandise at San Francisco; Postmasters—Napoleon B. Stone, San Francisco; Jesse Moore, Owensboro, Ky.; Susan H. Burbridge, Hopkinsville, Ky.

THE NATIONAL TREASURY.

Including the balance in the Treasury on December 31st, namely, $1,284,832.37, the receipts of the Government for the quarter ending March 31 were $224,837,243, and the expenditures $106,005,029.

The clerks of the Treasury Department recently sent to California in charge of a large quantity of Government funds, have returned, bringing about a million and a quarter of money, including one million one hundred thousand dollars of cancelled notes; the rest specie.

It is stated a change will soon be made in the office of Chief Clerk of the Register of the Treasury, now held by B. F. Ryttenhouse.

CANADIAN FISHERIES.

Advices were received to-day of the arrival of the United States steamer Frolic at Prince Edward's Island. She is now cruising in the Gulf of St. Lawrence for the protection of the interests of American fishermen.

THE BOY BAPTIZED.

The Vice President's young son was baptized night before last by Rev. Drs. Newman and Eddy. President Grant and family were present, and the President presented young Schuyler with a very handsome silver cup.

EXEQUATUR REVOKED.

The President has revoked the exequatur of Joaquin Depoima, Portuguese Vice Consul at Savannah, for satisfactory reasons, which are not stated in the proclamation.

RECEIVED.

Count Lewis Coti, new Italian Minister, was received to-day by the President.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—During the continuance of the recent trouble in France five hundred and fifty-seven people were arrested in Paris for participating in riots. The tribunals have commenced the consideration of the cases.

—The Mercer county, New Jersey, Grand Jury made a presentment yesterday of the Camden and Amboy Railroad for neglecting to adopt necessary precautions to protect human life at places where their tracks cross streets in Trenton.

The Painting Season.

We are now full into the season when paint is a positive necessity for the preservation and beautification of our residences and places of business. A pound of paint judiciously applied is worth its weight in gold to the house on which placed, both as regards appearance and durability. We are glad to observe that much painting has been done this season, and those who handle the brush skillfully have had their slates kept covered with orders. To illustrate the truth of this we have only to refer to our friend John T. Gray, No. 54 Ninth, late Hand street. He has been kept unusually busy and even yet has not emerged from the throng of trade that has driven him to his utmost capacity during the past three months. Employing some forty excellent mechanics and having his business carefully managed, he has been measurably able to keep up with his large and increasing patronage. There are many reasons, however, which combine to make Gray popular in his business, and to cause a preference for his workmanship. In the first place he takes pains with all his jobs, slighting none. He uses the very best quality of materials and mixes his colors with great care. He attends promptly to all orders, and puts on the work only thoroughly competent and experienced workmen, while his prices are always as reasonable as it is possible for them to be for good workmanship. His foreman, Mr. Lew. H. Purkey, thoroughly understands his business, and to his efficiency is due much of the success which attends Mr. Gray in the trade. Any of our readers who may want a good job in the way of house and sign painting, plain or ornamental, will do well to secure the services of Mr. Gray. We can commend him in the heartiest terms as eminently worthy of patronage, and bespeak for him an increase of the large share of custom hitherto directed towards his doors.

For a live Sunday Paper take the Sunday Dispatch. It will be the liveliest, handsomest and most interesting paper ever issued in Pittsburgh. Everybody should subscribe for it.

The Trees are out in full bloom, the birds are caroling their sweetest lays, the air is filled with the fragrance of a thousand flowers, and all Nature wears a rosy May day smile, is if in encouragement of Liebler, the great trunk man, in his work of providing for the traveling millions the benefits and blessing of a trunk able to withstand all the attacks of all the baggage smashers in existence. Liebler has them on hand at 104 Wood street.

Sunday Dispatch, ready for delivery to agents, newsboys and carriers, at one o'clock, to-morrow morning. Come one, come all for it.

Good Hotel.—Allegheny can now rejoice in the possession of a good hotel—the Girard House fills the bill. The necessity for such an institution in our sister city has existed for a long time, and it is gratifying to note that the enterprise of an Alleghenian, M. G. C. Lightcat has at last brought about the happy consummation. The "Girard" is located on Federal street corner of Isabella, convenient, cosy, comfortable and just the place for the boarder or traveler.

McFarland, the New York sensation, has not yet determined to visit Pittsburgh. It has been suggested that if he can't come himself that he send to No. 104 Wood street, for one of Liebler's trunks, to pack away the voluminous documents developed in his trial, to be perused by future historians when reviewing this remarkable case. If he puts the papers away in one of these they are bound to be safe.

The Paper for the newsboys is the Sunday Dispatch. It will go off like hot cakes. Newsboys will never get stuck on the Sunday Dispatch.

Time would fail to tell of the ribbons and laces and flowers and trinkets and fancy articles in store at Moorhead's, No. 81 Market street, for the ladies. The establishment is a fair art gallery of itself, representing all the art expended in manufacturing useful and ornamental articles of female apparel. The stock is always large, and always fresh—kept so by quick sales and constant arrivals. Ladies call at 81 Market street.

A Great Many of our citizens are making preparations for visiting the continent the coming season, and among the first items attended to is the purchase of some of Liebler's trunks, from 104 Wood street, for storing away what baggage they may carry with them. It is a wise provision, for nowhere else can they get such articles in this line as Liebler manufactures.

Four Columns of advertisements received for the Sunday Dispatch yesterday. Room but for a few more. Don't all speak at once.

UNDENIABLE.—The fact that stained glass adds to the appearance of a church or private dwellings. Wm. Nelson, 23 Market street, furnishes all styles stained glass promptly to order.

WORKING MEN, mechanics and others, wishing cheap and pleasant homes, should attend third great sale of building lots in extended subdivision of McKeesport to come off Monday, 16th. The lots of original plan are being sold and rapidly improved. Those for sale are equally beautiful and offer some rare inducements. See advertisement.

WHERE IT MAY BE SEEN.—Good work, beautiful designs and brilliant colors may be seen at Wm. Nelson's glass staining establishment, 23 Market street.

WHERE TO BUY THEM, AND
How to Send for Them.

The season is now approaching when the Country Sabbath Schools are opening, and require Library Books and requisites. We are making a specialty of the Sabbath School Book business, and have the largest stock in the city. We will select for any school that cannot afford to send a committee to the city, and allow them to return any books they do not like. Or, we will send any amount they wish, and let them make their own selection and return the balance. Our stock is selected from all the publishing houses in the country, and is suited to schools of EVERY DENOMINATION.

In sending for books get a Post Office order or draft. Write your name and Post Office address plainly, and give full directions for shipping. We make it a rule to fill all orders the day they are received, if at all possible.

Catalogues furnished, and all inquiries cheerfully answered. Address,

THIRTY-FOUR ACRES,
Fine Suburban Residence,
ON OHIO RIVER, AT NEVILLE,
At Auction.

On FRIDAY, May 20th, at 11 o'clock, will be sold by auction, on the premises, the property of Mr. Thomas Bakewell, at Neville, a station on the P., Ft. W. and C. R. W., about 20 minutes ride from town. The grounds embrace 34 acres in a high state of cultivation, thickly planted with grapes, pears, apples and other fruits, and highly ornamented with evergreen, shade and forest trees, shrubbery and flowers. A winding avenue of easy grade leads from the station to the dwelling, which occupies a commanding position in the centre of the grounds. The scenic views obtainable from this point are really magnificent. The adjacent country for miles around, and the beautiful winding Ohio to Sewickley Point, are visible from nearly every portion of these premises. It is a garden spot, and to be appreciated must be seen. The house is a substantial and elegant double frame structure, with front, back and side porches; spacious balcony, vestibule, hall, parlor, with bay window; sitting room, library, with bay window, dining room, kitchen, with range, hot and cold water, and water tank; six chambers on second floor, bath, water closet, finished attic, storeroom, good dry cellar with heating furnace, wash house, stationary tubs and other conveniences. Marbleized slate mantles in all the rooms. The entire building is in complete order, is of modern style, and has a very handsome appearance. The outbuildings are extensive, embracing carriage house, horse and cow stables, tool house, chicken house, ice house, cooling room and observatory. The old Jack mansion, a comfortable house, is also on the ground. This property is within the limits of the borough of Bellevue, in a highly desirable neighborhood for a residence, is approachable by the Brighton road, and is right at the railway station, where almost hourly connection with the city is afforded. It is the desire of the owner that this property shall be sold in one piece, and decided inducements will be offered to accomplish that object. As a last resort, however, it will be sold in divisions to suit the demands of those present at the sale. The premises will be open for inspection for three days prior to the sale.

TERMS—One-third cash, balance in three equal yearly payments, with interest, secured by bond and mortgage on the premises.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Allegheny County.

GAZETTE BUILDING:
Corner of Sixth Avenue and Smithfield Street.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1870.

BONDS in Frankfort, firm.

PETROLEUM in Antwerp, 58½.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 114¼.

HON. R. J. HALDEMAN, a Democratic member of Congress from the York district, was married at Harrisburg, on Thursday evening, to a daughter of Senator CAMERON.

THE latest proposition, from the friends of the San Domingo treaty, is to extend a protectorate over the island. We hope, and really believe, that this business will prove a failure, in whatever shape it may be presented.

THE route proposed for the Darien Canal is found by the surveyors to be impracticable. An examination is now in progress of the line from the Gulf of San Blas, nearer to Aspinwall, with the promise of a more encouraging result.

THE reporter at Washington who garbles the testimony in the HOWARD investigation to suit his own private purposes, and gets it printed in the Pittsburgh Commercial and half a dozen other papers, merits, says the Chicago Post, "the indignant condemnation of all honorable journals and of the intelligent public."

WE see the name of a certain George K. Anderson announced as a candidate for the Senate in the Crawford and Erie district. Is he the same George K. Anderson whose due-bill for sundry thousands was included in the items of the "vault account," handed over to the incoming State Treasurer in May, 1869? We are anxious to know! Can any one tell us? It might be important to the people of that district to know if the man who proposes to serve them had at any time the use of the State funds in contravention of law.

WE regret that our limited space, this morning, precludes us from presenting more copious extracts from the very eloquent and instructive speech of General Negley, on the state of foreign commerce. His remarks have attracted much attention and a general commendation. The Washington Chronicle says:

> The speech of Gen. Negley is a most able effort, presenting an array of facts as to the existing condition of our commerce, and as to the effects upon the course of trade that would be produced by an adequate protection of our shipping interests, which can hardly fail to carry conviction to the mind of any unprejudiced reader.

THE Lancaster Enquirer learns that the bolting Republicans who supported "honesty and reform" Irwin, hav'nt all been settled with yet. That is quite true. We hear of one Represantative from the Lawrence district who was promised $300 for his vote—and hasn't got the money yet. He is not the one who took the $1,000 bill out of the envelope with which an "honesty and reform" Senator was confidenced. That was another Representative from the same district. The man to whom we now refer has been badly used. He voted as agreed upon and when he went for his pay, was told, by each of the two outsiders who ran the Legislative machine, that his name was not on any of their pay rolls. However, it is said that he has a promise from one of the agents to "do what he can for him"—not enough, we fear, to pay for a renomination from the Republican people of his district.

ON account of the respectability of the source from whence coming we publish the following communication. Of the persons commended as candidates for Congress in the Twenty-third District the only one for whom we can speak, with grateful sensibility of the compliment implied, we know disclaims any aspirations for Congressional honors. Of the other it is right to say that he is a gentleman so eminent for intellectual and moral worth, that it would be an honor to any constituency to have such a representative.

EDITORS GAZETTE: The newspaper nominations of Congressman, for the Twenty-third District, having been opened, by the card of Senator Graham, announcing himself a candidate for the position, there will be no impropriety in suggesting other names in this connexion that the people to be represented may make a suitable choice; and without making any comparison of claims or qualifications, we would mention the names of Josiah King, Esq., and Felix Brunot, Esq., either of whom would be warmly supported in the Twenty-third District.

May 3, 1870.

IT IS barely possible that some friend of the "honesty and reform" ring may invite from our Executive Committee, to-day, an expression of favor for the popular vote or "Crawford county" plan of effecting nominations. But the Committee are not likely to forget that this fallacious suggestion has been once before in this county heard and decisively condemned. In a Convention three years ago, its adoption was urged by some city delegates and opposed by the country members. And it was properly squelched. For the country districts would, by this plan, be totally deprived of a voice in the nominations. A densely populated city precinct could at any hour send men enough just around the corner to vote, to swamp the adverse choice of all the voters who could be scared up in half a dozen townships to leave their work and ride three or four miles to the polls at a primary election. The "honesty and reform" ring couldn't make it go down the people's throats three years ago, and they won't succeed now. If the Committee think otherwise, however, they would, no doubt, consent to submit the question to the Convention—which is certain to re-affirm its former judgment.

Another question, of more practical value, may perhaps arise. It is that of the apportionment of delegates in the ratio of the actual Republican vote. This question, if it comes up, ought to be thoroughly considered and fairly determined, according to its merits, which are by no means to be wholly denied.

A PRIVILEGE FOR ALL.

Persons who still cling to the idea that the people of Pittsburgh do not want any more means of cheap recreation than they have, and who still assert that if we had a park in some accessible place it would not be used, should stroll over to Allegheny upon a Sunday afternoon or a week day evening, and see how those portions of the Commons, which have been opened to the public, are thronged with quiet, well-behaved people, who seem to know how to use and enjoy their new pleasure-grounds. How, on Sundays, the benches are filled with resters, the fountains encompassed by admirers, and the walks, from end to end, a constant ever-changing stream of humanity. How hundreds of of working people go out of their way to take in the Commons, or some portion of them, in going home from work, and linger about the flower-beds, almost as if even they could enjoy the beauty and freshness of nature adorned, as well as the more fortunate ones who have such things of their own. How, late in the evenings, numerous fathers and mothers, surrounded by their families, loiter about, and appear to enjoy their new opportunities of breathing fresh air, and looking at the grass, and the sparkling water, although the young trees have not been planted a twelve month, and will not be umbrageous for a decade to come. We have walked there on many an evening, and have noticed many tired men, of all classes from judges and lawyers and ministers to laboring men, resting themselves with their wives or little ones there. And yet it is but a few years since there were hundreds of people in Allegheny who did not see the use of spending money upon the Commons, or who thought they were intended for cow-pastures and should not be taken for any other purpose.

We suppose that it will be many a long year before Pittsburgh has any public pleasure-grounds at all, but they will necessarily come at last, and in the mean time, while we are enjoying the fruits of the wiser forethought of our sister city, let us make haste to get rid of the idea that the people do not need and would not use parks on this side of the river.

HASTEN SLOWLY.

The members of the Republican Executive Committee will hold a meeting in this city to-day. It has been suggested that an effort is to be made to induce the Committee to inaugurate the immediate opening of the political canvass, by fixing a very early day for the assemblage of our Convention. But we incline to think that this proposition will not receive the sanction of the Committee. It is very justly considered that the elections of this year are to be entirely local, there being no State ticket in the field, which fact obviates the usual necessity for such an early organization of the party, as the exigencies of State and National politics always justify. While the local ticket will have due consideration for its importance, and its success will be adequately provided for, our most thoughtful friends deprecate the suggestion that the party lines should be dressed up at this unnecessarily early hour, arraying the people at once for a contest, with its resulting excitements, to be protracted for nearly five months.

The situation, this year, is fortunately such that the people wish to improve it for a temporary rest from needless agitations. It will be time enough by-and-bye to make the county nominations and organize for their success. Were this county in any sense a debateable field for partisans, there would be more propriety in an earlier preparation for the canvass. But since no doubt is felt, in any quarter whatever, of the Republican control of the situation, there is a general desire among the people to be spared, as long as may be expedient, from the exciting labors of an organized canvass.

It is well to give to all candidates the widest latitude in feeling the public pulse, to ascertain their individual strength before deciding to submit their names to the Convention. Let the field be thoroughly gone over by the aspirants themselves, and give time for the latest developments having a political interest for the people! The Conventions would then assemble, to meet all the questions of the day, and with better information as to the wants and strength of the candidates respectively.

Since this is neither a President's nor a Governor's year, it is plain to every judgment that we ought to be as long as possible exempt from the electioneering labors only customary in those campaigns. Pray, gentlemen of the Committee, give to your constituents the leisure which the situation justifies—time to rest, to think, to weigh the merits of candidates, and to assemble, at last, fully posted in all the personal and political questions on which the Conventions are to pronounce! We are thus much more likely to secure good tickets, which we can then run through the October ordeal with a rush.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Congregationalists had a grand Convocation at Chicago some days ago. The first service was the inauguration of Professor Hyde, as Professor of Pastoral Theology and Special Studies in the Chicago Theological Seminary. In the evening, Dr. D. O. Haven, the distinguished President of the Northwestern University, under the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Evanston, near Chicago, delivered an exceedingly happily conceived address before the Society of Inquiry, connected with the Seminary. On the next day the Triennial Convention commenced its sittings. The roll showed that four hundred delegates were present from nine States. The afternoon of the day following a grand Memorial meeting took place, taking as its roll the list of members of the Triennial Convention, which was swelled to five hundred and fifty. This meeting was commemorative of the landing of the Pilgrims in 1620, two hundred and fifty years ago. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Bacon, of New Haven, Connecticut, and Rev. Dr. Post, of St. Louis, recounting the history and success of Congregationalism. The Convention, in a series of resolutions, ordered the erection of a Congregational House in Boston for library purposes, and to be a home for the benevolent societies of the Church, recognized the great value of the Common School founded on the basis of God's holy Word, and recommended the establishment of a National Annual, or Triennial Conference, on the principle simply of fellowship. The report of the Special Committee sets forth the great work accomplished by the Pilgrim Fathers, in the principles they advocated, and illustrated in their lives by patience, humility and obedience. The closing services of "Convention Week" were in connection with the graduate exercises of the Theological Seminary. Fourteen young men graduated, six of whom made addresses.

The Journal and Messenger, of Cincinnati, and the Central Baptist, both organs of the Baptists, differ in a matter of some moment. The former declares very positively that "no instance is recorded of a layman's ever baptizing." The latter doubts, and wants to know what evidence "we have that Deacon Philip, who baptized the Eunuch, was more than what at present times we call a layman."

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, is to meet, May 19, in Waynesburg, Missouri.

The new building of the Catholics in Boston, commenced about the same time as the Methodist building, and to cost about the same amount, is to have a Savings bank. The Methodist structure will cost three hundred thousand dollars. This feature of the Catholics is advocated by Zion's Herald, the Methodist organ in that city, and it also suggests the organization of similar institutions at the Book Room, New York, and all over the country.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions took place in New York several days ago. The report of the Treasurer shows that over three hundred thousand dollars have been received from May 1, 1869, to April 30, 1870, making a total of over five millions seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars received in aid of missions since 1833. The missions cover nine distinct fields, namely: American Indians, Brazil, Western Africa, India, Siam, Laos, China, Japan, the Chinese in California, and the Jews in this country.

Rev. J. B. Stewart, of the Fifth Presbyterian church, Cincinnati, Ohio, has received into the church, during his six years' pastorate, three hundred and eighteen persons—an average of sixty-four per year. He has received and accepted a unanimous call from the First Presbyterian church of Davenport, Iowa. Rev. Mr. Stewart is the brother-in-law of Rev. Dr. W. A. Davidson, formerly pastor of the Liberty street Methodist Episcopal church of this city, and now residing at Washington, Pa.

Methodist Itinerancy is virtually practical by other denominations, without the system and harmony, and consequently the benefits are not realized, to the degree of our Methodist friends—so they claim. A correspondent of the Examiner (Baptist) affirms that "the average duration of Baptist pastorates is shorter than that of Methodist pastorates," and that "at least one Baptist church, in every ten throughout the land is at this moment enjoying the pleasureable excitement of having a new pastor."

Bishop Lee, of Delaware, has declined the request that himself and eight other Bishops inquire whether any bishop has taught doctrines contrary to the faith of the Protestant Episcopal Church, on the ground that he does not desire the office of hunter of heresy among his brethren.

At the late meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in New York, Rev. Dr. Tyng, Episcopal, said "that he abhored creeds, and should persistently resist their introduction at the coming meeting. He believed in a great, noble, catholic Christianity. He did not believe in Episcopalianism, or Presbyterianism. It did not make a particle of difference whether a Christian was immersed all over or dipped in up to his knees. He was an Episcopalian because he was born one, and, having never met with anything better outside of it, he had never deserted it. He loved boundless liberty for Christians. He wanted freedom to say what he pleased. He believed that it made no difference about creeds when Christians die. If a soul loves Jesus, Jesus loves that soul."

The Presbyterian churches of Chicago have formed a league "for the more effective promotion of city evangelization," with an executive committee for "united, systematic and aggressive effort."

Beecher has rendered the following opinion, it is stated, and, with some, there is no appeal: A Congregationalist is a dry Baptist, and a Baptist a wet Congregationalist.

There is a small church of Christian Israelites in New York, who have maintained regular worship for more than twenty years. They believe that the twelve tribes of Israel now scattered on the earth are to be gathered together and brought to embrace Christianity. Their dress is like that of the Quakers, and their services are in English and German.

The Rev. John Scott, editor of the Methodist Recorder and Sabbath School Recorder at Springfield, Ohio, formerly of this city, has resigned those positions, to take effect on the 15th of next September. He returns to the ministry.

THE Somerset Herald says:

> The Commercial not only encouraged but attempted to justify the Legislative bolt of last winter, whereby the regular nominee for State Treasurer was stricken down, and a ring composed of men known to be "openly and undisguisedly corrupt politicians" was placed in power, not only to the injury of the Republican party and the disgrace of the Commonwealth, but to the imminent danger of the coffers of the State.

OUR COMMERCIAL INTERESTS.

Speech of Hon. J. S. Negley.

The bill to revive the navigation and commercial interests of the United States, being under consideration in the House, on Wednesday, the 11th inst., Mr. Negley spoke in its support, and at great length. Our limited space confines us to the republication of only the salient points of his address. He said:

MR. SPEAKER: The national gravity of the measure under consideration may be realized by contemplating the fact that the decline of our merchant marine has actually arrested the attention of the entire civilized world, and the magnitude of the public interests involved imposes upon this Congress the imperative duty of seeking a solution of the causes and providing speedy and commensurate remedies of this calamity.

Although the subject has been ably discussed by the eloquent chairman of the committee, Mr. Lynch, I turn to it in obedience to the highest sense of duty devolving upon me as a representative.

I believe in the axiom, "Whatsoever commands the sea, commands the riches of the world, and consequently the world itself.

I also believe and assert that a well-organized and efficient merchant marine is equally as essential to the political economy and safety of our national independence as the construction of railroads, canals, and other means of intercommunication.

You can go to the crowded quays of many of the commercial emporiums of the world without beholding the flag of our country at the masthead of a single vessel; and to give greater significance to this deplorable fact, I quote the following extract from a letter I have lately received from his Excellency, Blacque Bey, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Turkey:

"All that I can tell now for the interest of the maritime power of the United States is this strange fact, which is to be regretted in every respect, that among twenty thousand vessels belonging to all nations which during the last year appeared in the waters of the Bosphorus, only one has been under the flag of the American Union."

He referred to the rapid strides made by England and France within the last few years in the way of augmenting their commercial strength and wealth, and showed that unless powerful steam lines of our own across the Atlantic shall soon be established, those countries will be out of the reach of our competition. The speaker quoted from tables of the tonnage of merchant vessels of the United States during the twenty years ended June 30, 1869, to show that there was a time when our commercial marine was second to none in extent.

According to the official returns the decrease of tonnage in 1869, as compared with 1868, appears to be 207,117 tons.

It is very humiliating for me to find that in 1850, when we had nearly twenty millions less of population, and were greatly inferior in industrial facilities and resources than at present, we built nearly if not quite as many tons of American vessels as we have in 1869.

It ts alarming to observe that since 1864 our tonnage is steadily decreasing, so that its decline in the single year from 1868 to 1869 reached the formidable figure of 200,000 tons.

* * * * * *

That we should sustain only 19,000 American ships, carrying not quite seven millions of tons, and employing not more than two hundred thousand American sailors, in our foreign trade, while we actually hire 37,000 foreign vessels, carrying nearly eleven millions of tons, and supporting over four hundred thousand alien seamen, seems utterly incredible to me; and yet it is a stubborn fact; attested by official statistics.

Nor is this all; to-day there is not a single steamer running between the United States and Europe which wears the American colors; whereas there are twelve foreign lines, comprising one hundred and seventeen steamers, with an aggregate tonnage of 268,437 tons.

* * * * * *

From all these glaring facts it becomes manifest that it would be hazardous to hope and imprudent to expect from private enterprise alone a speedy and substantial improvements in our commercial conveyances and shipping facilities. Encouragement and substantial aid from the part of the Government are not only desirable but absolutely necessary. Yet it requires an accuaate study and clear observation of the present currents of trade and avenues of profitable commerce to grant such legislative assistance as will meet the emergencies of the times.

By the policy of liberal subsidies, the steam marine of England has increased 417 per cent.; that of France 613 per cent.; and that of Austria 637 per cent., during the past twenty years, while our steam marine, in consequence of our adverse to policy, has increased only 210 per cent. during the same period.

* * * * * * *

The highest public, social and political considerations are at stake, and I cannot but think that this Government is ready to perform its part in the patriotic work of establishing the supremacy of our flag on the sea, and of recovering all our just commercial advantages.

Animated by this spirit and urged by these views, Mr. Speaker, I advocate prompt and liberal legislative action on the part of the Government and the States in favor of any and all enterprises which tend to revive our ship-building, especially the construction of large ocean steamers, which lead to an early enlargement of our commerce and naval authority.

Now is our time for action!

It would be unwise, however, to enter upon the arena of competition on a point where the forces of our rivals are the strongest; where our hope for success would be the weakest, and our sacrifices and struggles at the beginning of the race the heaviest.

The novelty of the Suez canal has not yet given the European commercial lords time to concentrate their squadrons in that direction. No permanent markets of specific staples have yet been established, and especially the direct route between the Mediterranean and our ports is as yet free. This is the field upon which we can win.

* * * * * * *

The value of our imports and exports from and to countries contiguous to the new route exceeded in 1868 and 1869 one-tenth of our entire commerce, and this valne will more than tripple itself if we establish a powerful line of first-class steamers plying between the Mediterranean and Eastern markets and our ports.

At present there is but one feeble direct foreign line of twelve small steamers between Gibraltar and New York, and yet these boats, of only twelve hundred and fifty tons each, import weekly thirty-six thousand boxes of lemons and oranges besides other freight, and they have even begun to carry immigrants to America.

The general realization of our naval weakness, of the diminution of our merchant marine, and of the humiliating displacement of our flag, has caused the introduction of several legislative propositions for the consideration of this Congress, and valuable suggestions may be found in most of them, and in all there is a cognate appeal for immediate and substantial aid from Government.

I cheerfully admit that the bills presented by the committee, with others contemplating money subsidies, contain some wise provisions, and have been ably advocated; yet I am constrained to oppose any method calculated to deplete the national treasury by the immense sums required by annual money subsidies. It is clearly the duty of Congress, as it has been the policy of the Administration, to reduce expenditures, and abolish, as rapidly as found consistent with the public interest, all war taxes and imposts.

Let the subsidies be paid in wild land under a system which prevents abuses by speculation and monopoly. Such regulations as are provided in the bill "to encourage the establishment of a line of steamships under the flag of the Union, for the conveyance of the mails of the United States to European ports and ports of India and China, and reducing the rates of ocean postage, and for promoting emigration from Europe to the Southern States of the Union," will develop the resources of unproductive Territories. Under this plan the government will be enriched and strengthened, the advantages and proceeds of these land sales will be equitably divided between the producer and consumer, between the North and the South, between the marts of commerce and the wilderness. In this manner the Government will build up a grand enterprise upon a permanent basis, and in a much more economical way than by annual cash appropriations. It is about time that the older States realize a share of the advantages growing out of the necessary disposal of the public domain, and the plan indicated in the bill referred to will effectually do this, and can be carried into effect without delay, without the expenditure of a single dollar, beyond that contributed now to the foreign mail service.

He then enumerated a long list of imports which would be added to our carrying trade and of exports that would be multiplied by the establishment of the proposed lines.

In reference to our cotton exports and the subject of immigration, he said the entire demand of cotton all over the world amounts now to over six and a half millions of bales per annum, and the aggregate supply scarcely reaches six millions. This inadequacy of product has been caused by the short-comings of the Indian and Egyptian article in quantity and quality, and it is but natural that we should supply the deficit by our next crop. Our capacity for doing this is more than ample; we could, if necessary, raise the entire six millions of bales, and our crops would still be remunerative, even if such an increase in production would reduce the price of this staple to ante-war figures of eleven and ten cents per pound, provided we could multiply our laboring forces by immigration. And here I may consistently introduce the next important feature contemplated in the provisions of the bill proposing to charter the Mediterranean and Oriental Steam Navigation Company.

How the ten millions added to our population within the last fifty years have accelerated the expansion of American civilization and power, and have helped to realize the grandest conceptions of those who commenced the structure of our republic, does not need any demonstration. They have anticipated the natural growth of our population and country by not less than forty years, and only the southern section of our vast country, on account of her previous system of labor, has derived no commensurate advantage from this influx. There is no more forced and unrewarded industry in the South now to compete with, or rather exclude, independent labor; still there is as yet but a small current of immigration flowing toward the boundless natural advantages of the Southern States.

* * * * *

It is contemplated in the bill, which invites your attention and approval Mr. Speaker, that the ships of the proposed line shall be constructed, according to models dictated by the Navy Department, from materials exclusively the production of the United States; that they shall be built in American ship yards and machine shops, and that they shall be adaptable alike for cheap conveyance of passengers, merchandise, and mails in peace, and for defense and aggressive measures in time of war or public danger.

It is further provided that all vessels of this line shall be framed of iron and propelled by steam.

The advantages of iron over wooden vessels consist in their greater rigidity, durability, buoyancy capacity, and strength, and numerically expressed amount to more than fifty per cent.

The cost of building iron vessels in the United States, because of the patronage bestowed upon England, exceeds according to reliable estimates, the ruling prices on the Clyde by about thirty-three per cent.

The Deleware river, near Chester and the Ohio, near Pittsburgh, in Pennsylvania, would afford the most ample facilities for the construction of iron ship yards. All the material required could be found at or cheaply transported to these points, at the same time all needed accommodations for the workmen; or if other localities were found preferable then the iron plates and other metal parts could be made after approved models and shipped without waste and in required quantities from our great workshops to the ship-yards.

The English vessels are inferior to ours in quality of material and construction.

Recent experiments upon the comparative merits of American and English ship-plate have given the following results:

Average tensile strengh of English specimen, 41,500 pounds per square inch.

Average tensile strength of American specimen, 45,272 pounds per square inch.

This difference in favor of American material amounts to fully nine per cent., and it is acknowledged that as soon as the revival of our ship-building and construction of iron propellers refurnishes our shops with an ample supply of tools and machinery, the advantage of labor skilled in routine will be so great that our expenses will be reduced by another seven per cent.

On account of these and other additional causes, I do not hesitate to assert that iron vessels can be built on the Delaware even now at not over five per cent. more than in Europe, and that our ship-builders and iron manufacturers in New York, Philadelphia, Chester, Wilmington, Pittsburgh, Wheeling, Cincinnati, and other favorable locations will become willing and, I doubt not, successful competitors with those on the Clyde, Tyne, Mersey, or Thames.

In addition to these advantages, the immediate construction of the contemplated line will substantially and economically augment our naval power.

It is no secret what services the Peninsular and Oriental Company has rendered to England in the Crimean war. This company possessed a fleet of fifty-seven steamers, with an aggregate tonnage of 84,000 tons, and with these means she conveyed 60,000 men, 20,000 officers, and 12,000 horses, besides artillery carriages and other war material, with ease and dispatch to the seat of war.

In the Indian mutiny she has rendered equally important services.

It is also a historical fact of the highest importance what was done by the Cunard line in the impudent "Trent affair." Her steamers were in readiness almost at a day's notice to carry 10,000 men to Canada against our Republic.

We know, also, what services our merchant marine has done in our late war. What would we have done without its magnificent transports? How could we have enforced our blockade without the aid of our armed merchantmen.

It is scarcely possible, Mr. Speaker, that any bill introduced in this House can commend itself by more sound features of political economy and statesmanship than that now under consideration.

I am aware there are opponents to it; some advocate the equipment of our merchant navy on the Clyde, others discountenance subsidies in any shape, and again others sneer at any pioneer movement of industry or commerce. Such men resemble in intelligence and foresight those custom-house officers in Liverpool, who, in 1784, seized the first shipment of American cotton under the belief that the cotton could not be grown except in British West India, or their private interests are so linked with the present prerogatives of the English flag that they are blinded against our public benefit.

I am supported, however, in my views and advocacy of subsidies in favor of the speedy establishment of the Mediterranean and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, not only by legions of our own citizens of all sections and vocations in life, but also by the sympathy and incitement of all nations directly or indirectly interested in the Mediterranean trade—England alone excepted.

He introduced letters from distinguished representatives of several commercial powers, highly commending and advising the establishment of the lines in question. He then continued:

Letters from the first commercial houses ot Lisbon, Cadiz, Malaga, Barcelona, Marseilles, Genoa, Leghorn, Messina, Brindisi, Trieste, Constantinople, Port Said, Alexandria, and Algiers, have been received by the company of this steamship line, and leading journals of Europe advocate the enterprise.

The Swiss Government is so anxious for the achievement of a line of steamers from this country to Genoa, that she has offered $20,000 as contribution for the transportation of her mails.

Egypt has volunteered either to take stock in the company or to give a direct subsidy.

Greece would, in similar manner, contribute toward organizing a direct and continuous intercourse by steam with our country.

Other countries will use still greater efforts to make this important enterprise a complete success; in fact, the combined interest manifested justifies the expectation that this American steam line not only will be lucrative and highly beneficial, but that it will be the powerful vanguard of similar American ventures on every sea.

* * * * * * *

When consummated, this work will become unquestionably a sublime element of onward progress, indicating the genius of the energized millions of free men, who, under the inspirations of Christianity and peace, are in this liberal epoch entering upon a career of material development, which aggregates the sum of individual successes in majestic forms of enterprises unparalleled in the history of the world.

THE WEAR AND TEAR OF BUSINESS LIFE.

The cares and labors of business life are apt to tell severely upon the health and constitution of the ardent, energetic business man, and when the need of some sustaining agent is felt, stimulants that cause only a temporary exhileration, and leave the system in a state of partial collapse when their first effect has passed off, are too often resorted to. As certainly as fire leaves behind it a residuum of ashes, the use of the adulterated liquors of commerce produces premature exhaustion and decay. Touch them not. Tone and regulate the overtaxed vital machinery with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In that wholesome elixir, the alcoholic element, which is the purest derivable from any source, is tempered by the choicest tonic, aperient, anti-bilious and anti-febrile vegetable extracts and juices. To strengthen, recruit, solace and purify the system is the mission of the great vegetable specific. When the stomach is in a healthy state, the bile flows regularly, the bowels perform their office properly, and the telegraphic fibres of the nervous system are in perfect working order, an enormous amount of labor can be borne without risk or inconvenience, and the direct effect of the Bitters is to promote this vigorous condition of the functions upon which the nourishment of the body, and its power of endurance mainly depend. The great tonic and alterative is, therefore, emphatically recommended for its remarkable strengthening properties, to all upon whom the responsibilities of life press heavily, and who feel like fainting under the burthen. A lively appetite, a splendid digestion, elastic spirits, and a marvellous ability to withstand fatigue, are among the blessings justly ascribed to the renovating operation of this palatable and powerful cordial, indeed there is nothing in the materia medica that can be compared with it.

SPECTACLES.
THE EYE.

Dr. FRANKS, the celebrated Lecturer on the Eye, and Manufacturer of Patent and Improved Spectacles, has returned to Pittsburgh, and is now at the ST. CLAIR HOTEL, where he adjusts his far-famed Spectacles to defective vision from an examination of the eye alone, so as to suit equally well by day as by artificial light without fatigue, from 15 to 25 years. Dr. F. may be professionally consulted on all diseases of the Human Eye, and has a large stock of his Spectacles and Eye Glasses for sale. About 4,000 pairs of these Spectacles were sold on Dr. Franks last visit in the space of three months, giving the most entire satisfaction to all, as the medical gentlemen and citizens of Pittsburgh have by certificate testified.

Be particular and enquire at the Ladies' entrance on Penn street for Dr. Franks' office, ROOM 22 St. Clair Hotel. ap15:STTH

NORTHERN Pacific Railroad.

To Railroad Contractors.

Sealed Proposals will be received at the office of the NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, No. 120 BROADWAY, corner of Cedar street, New York, until WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of June, 1870, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the Grading, Masonry, Bridging and Ballasting of that portion of the Northern Pacific Railroad in the State of Minnesota, extending from the Dalles of the St. Louis river to the Red river, the western boundary of Minnesota (a distance of about 230 miles), including everything requisite to complete the road-bed for a single track, and necessary side tracks, ready to receive the rail superstructure.

The said Company will also receive proposals, at the same time and place, for the timber cross-ties, and for the iron rails, spikes and fixtures for the road as above. The iron rails to be delivered on the dock at Duluth, Minnesota, or at the crossing of the Mississippi river, and the ties received according to blank forms, which will be ready for distribution on WEDNESDAY, May 4, 1870, at the office of the Company, as above, where plans of the structures, and maps and profiles of the road, with full specifications, can then be seen, and the time allowed for the completion of the contracts made known.

The Company reserve the right to reject any or all bids not deemed to be for the interests of the Company.

Printed circulars containing full information will be furnished on application, by mail or otherwise, to EDWIN F. JOHNSON, Chief Engineer, or to the President of the Company, at the office, No. 120 BROADWAY, as above.

DR. WHITTIER

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE ST., (near Court House) Pittsburgh.

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 13, 1870.

The excitement in the gold and stock market seems to be on the wane. Gold, which was strong yesterday at 115 to 115⅛ has sold down to-day to 114⅞, reacting, however, to 114⅞; the average quotations were 115⅛. Under a continued export demand and a falling off in the specie reserve of the banks of France and England higher prices for gold may be looked for, but the speculative mania that carried the premium up five and ten per cent. has lost its power in the gold room, and outsiders care little for a slight advance so long as the value of merchandise is not materially changed.

Government bonds were dull and heavy to-day, with an average decline of ⅛ per cent and a downward tendency.

Stocks are stronger and in some instances higher. All the speculative stocks are keeping their own, whilst Reading advanced to 104.

Money easy at 7 to 9 per cent. Business dull.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 13, 1870.

The money market is easy at 4@5 on call. All the markets are depressed by sensational reports regarding the Funding Bill. Sterling firmer at 109⅝@109⅞. Gold lower, closing steady; opened at 115⅛, touched 114⅞ and closed at 114⅞. Carrying rates are 5⅛@2 per cent., the latter being the last rate paid. Clearances $50,000,000.

Governments lower and closed firm; coupons of '81, 16⅞a17; do '62, 12a12⅛; no '64, 11⅛a11⅞; do '65, 11⅞a12l do '69, new, 13⅛a13⅞; do '67; 14⅛a14⅞; do '69. 14⅛a14⅞; 10-40s, 8a8⅛. Currency 6s, 12⅛a12⅞.

State bonds unsettled; Missouri, 93; old Tennessee, 60⅞; new, 56⅛; old North Carolina, 48⅛; new, 35.

The Railway market is unsettled, with frequent fluctuations. At the close a steadier feeling prevailed, and a general recovery. Reading led the market on the upward turn, and touched 104⅛, about the highest price since the bull movement was inaugurated. The latest transactions in Lake Shore and Northwestern preferred. were at the highest figures of the day. The balance of the list was nearly up to the best prices of the day, and large sellers of the past few days were free buyers. Miscellaneous list is firm; Western Union Telegraph weaker than other shares. Express stocks dull and heavy.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 13, 1870

The iron trade continues dull and unsatisfactory, and the indications at present are not very favorable for any immediate improvement. Metal is just about as slow as ever, notwithstanding, it is generally regarded as being low, and there are those who are impressed with the belief that it will not go much lower, as it is now being sold at about cost; quite a number of furnaces in the Shenango and Mahoning districts, it is said, have gone out of blast, and others contemplate doing likewise. If this is correct, there will probably be a reaction soon, as with diminished receipts and reduced stocks, a stronger feeling would ensue, and with a firmer market, buyers generally would be disposed to stock up, in order to anticipate an advance. The feeling continues to gain strength that there will be no change made by the present Congress in the duty on metal.

The annexed article on the iron trade, is from a gentleman, largely and actively engaged in the business here, and he understands the situation fully:

"The market for pig metal, iron and nails is in an unsettled condition, and it now looks as if pig metal would decline to $30 per ton, iron to 3 cents, and nails to 3⅞, indeed the consumers of the raw material claim that at present rates for iron and nails, pigs should rule at $30. The furnacemen having made their contracts for ore at high rates argue that it will be impossible for them to make pigs much under present rates, although it does seem strange that Anthracite furnaces, nearly all old style, making only from 14 to 20 tons of metal per day, can pay the high railroad freights over the mountains and compete with our more modern western furnaces, using the rich Lake Superior and Iron Mountain ores, and making from 30 to 50 ton of iron per day. They manage somehow or other to do it, and really, as our market report will show, have undersold and controlled the market during the last sixty days.

"Our mills have run this season well up to their capacity, and our manufacturers have regained most of the trade lost during the "stops" and "strikes" of 1867. The steady gradual decline in both raw and finished iron has robbed our manufacturers of about all their profits, the reduction in stock on hand—necessarily very heavy—fully equaling the legitimate increase in manufacturing. However, with reduced raw material, and lower prices for labor, which the reduced prices of all values will naturally involve, the business will become safer and fluctuations less frequent.

"The shipments of iron east which this time a year ago aggregated two to four thousand tons per month, have dwindled down to nearly nothing. The decline in gold (the iron men's accidental tariff) and the threatened reduction in the tariff preventing importers and eastern manufacturers from placing orders here; indeed all the orders we hear of from the east are for few odd lots of tank and sheet iron to pattern.

"The orders from all sections during the last week have been light, and as stocks of iron and nails are large and well assorted, we are led to expect that unless the demand and prices improve our mills will nearly all stop at the first approach of hot weather.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 13, 1870.

The grain markets are now being watched with considerable interest all over the country, and it is singular that notwithstanding the prospects for the coming crop could not be better and the stocks large, prices are stronger and higher than they have been at any time this year. In reference to wheat the Chicago Tribune of Thursday says:

"There is apparently a very strong bull combination here, and prices have mounted rapidly upwards under their manipulations, while Eastern markets have moved upward in sympathy. The grounds of confidence are not only the anticipated lack of yield in California, but the fact that, notwithstanding the large shipments from Chicago and Milwaukee this spring, there is scarcely a two weeks' supply in New York, and considerably less than a million bushels in Buffalo. The wonder is where it is all gone to, and the wonder can only be explained by remembering that the people let it along severely during the decline last autumn, and hence were obliged to take hold more liberally after prices had ceased to go down, while probably 25 per cent of our crop has been consumed in usual ways, taking the place of other grain which was relatively high priced. The large proportion of the lower grades has been kept down in this way within controllable limits. Then it is remembered that, although our crop of 1869 is confessedly of poorer quality than the average, yet much of the European wheat is even worse." These things have been reason enough for a strong upward movement, to say nothing of the reduction in the cost of shipment. But there are those who remember that Liverpool has not correspondingly advanced with the Chicago market, and believe that the improvement here has been so rapid that its reaction must come soon, though a drop to the seventies is not probable. These are selling short quietly, and profess to expect a heavy tumble within a few days.

ASHES—Firmer in the east but unchanged here. Common Soda, 4; refined, 4⅛; Pearls, 9⅛; Pots, 7⅛.

APPLES—The demand is fair and fully equal to the supply, while prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at $4@5 per bbl.

BUTTER—Continues very dull and there is not much prospect of any immediate improvement. There is almost enough coming in from the adjacent country to supply the demand, and, as might be expected, commission butter is hard to sell at any price, as it is not wanted. We continue to quote at 20 to 25 for fair to choice roll.

BEANS—There is little or no demand and prices are nominal at $1.50@2 per bushel.

BROOM CORN—Is dull but unchanged, 13@16 cts per pound.

CHEESE—Sales of Ohio Goshen at 16@16⅛; and New York Goshen at 17@18. New Western Reserve, is quoted at 12@14 cts.

CARBON OIL—Is easier and a shade lower, standard brands being quoted at 23⅛@24c. As is always the case at this season of the year, the jobbing demand is very light.

CORNMEAL—Quiet and unchanged, 95@$1 per bushel.

DRIED FRUIT—Demand rather better, particularly for the better grades. Apples, 6@7c, Peaches, 7@8 for quarters and 8@9 for halves, as to quality. Blackberries, 13@14c.

EGGS—The demand is more active and with only moderate receipts the market is firmer, but 14c is still regarded as the ruling price, and it is hard to effect sales at anything over this quotation.

FLOUR—The market is firm with a steady local demand, but the arrivals are increasing and the supply is fully up to the home trade. We continue to quote western flours, in store at $5.25@5.50 for spring wheat; $5.75@6 for winter wheat, and $7@7⅛ for fancy brands.

GRAIN—There is a steady demand for wheat, and with a continued light offerings, prices are strong though unchanged; $1.15@1.20 for red, and $1.25@1.30 for white, as to quality. Oats stronger under the influence of the advices from the east, and prices are tending upward. We can report sales of 8 car loads, to go to Philadelphia, at 52@53. Corn, also, is stronger, and scarce, and prices are looking up; sale 1 car shelled at 92; ear may be quoted at 85@88, and shelled at 90@93. There is only a moderate inquiry for rye, but the demand is by no means brisk, and prices remain unchanged; 95@$1. Barley is quiet; but little offering and not much wanted; we continue to quote at 85@90 for fair to prime spring.

GROCERIES—The grocery market is devoid of anything new or important. Sugars are easier; it seems impossible to get prices up to stay. Several times, within the past two or three weeks, refined sugars have been advanced a shade, but at no time could the advance be maintained—the stocks are too large. Coffees, also, are easier, in fact lower, and rather dull. New Orleans molasses steady but unchanged.

HAY—Continues very dull and baled may be quoted, on wharf, at $14@17.

LARD OIL—Extra No. 1, $1.30@1.33, and No. 2, 90.

POTATOES—Continue very dull and holders are anxious to realize. We continue to quote Peach Blows at 35@40c.

PROVISIONS—Demand moderate but prices remain unchanged. Plain Shoulders, 13⅛@13⅛; Sugar Cured do, 14⅛@14⅛; Ribbed Sides, 16⅛; Short Rib, 17; Clear, 17⅛; Plain Sugar Cured Hams, 18⅛@19⅛; Canvassed do, 19⅛@19⅛. Lard, in tierces, 17⅛@17⅛; in kegs, 18⅛@18⅛. Mess Pork, $30@31.

SEEDS—No movement in Clover or Timothy Seeds as the season is virtually over. Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2.15, and a round lot would probaly bring $2.20.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 13, 1870.

The market was weak and dull to-day, and compared with yesterday, refined is lower, while crude is without quotable change. The violent fluctuations in prices, within the past few days, is calculated to unsettle business and retard operations, and until confidence has been somewhat restored, it is not likely that there will be any improvement.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point with 7 feet 6 inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks last evening. The weather continues unsettled with indications of more rain.

The Savanna, from St. Louis, arrived on Thursday evening. She was detained some time at Wheeling in discharging 400 tons of iron ore. As will be seen by card, she is announced for a return trip.

The Granite State departed for Portsmoth last evening with a fair trip, including quite a number of passengers.

The Belle, Capt. J. P. Smith, is the regular packet for Brownsville and Geneva, to-day, leaving at 5 o'clock P. M. Although only a week in the trade, she has already made many friends along the Monongahela Valley. Capt. Smith pays paaticular attention to way business.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Ed. Evans, will positively depart for Nashville to-day, and passengers and shippers can rely on her going clear through. Shippers are requested to have their bills of lading down as early in the day as possible. Messrs. Harbison and Ghriest are associated together in the office.

The Glendale, Capt. Hare, with Capt. James Mellon in the office, is announced for St. Louis forthwith.

The Granite State had some Cincinnati freight which she will reship at Portsmouth.

The Wild Duck, Capt. Anawalt, is loading for St. Louis, though she will receipt freight through to Memphis and New Orleans.

The Petrolia, from Wheeling, arrived and departed as usual.

Capt. Isaac R. Whittaker still retains charge of the office of the Savanna, Capt. Thomas Rogers is in command.

—The Cincinnati Commercial of Thursday says: David Dunseth, pilot of the Kenton, recently sunk at Helena, arrived here yesterday. He states the Kenton had landed and received several passengers, and while leaving the bank backed on a hidden stump, and sunk immediately, with her starboard side out on the bank, and larboard under under water. Her chimneys are standing, and notwithstanding the boat is considerably listed, he is of opinion she can be saved. Her cargo was being speedily removed, and will be saved. The submarine Eckert arrived at the wreck on Sunday last.

—In reference to boats which advertise to leave at a certain time and fail to do so, the Evansville (Ind.) Courier says: In Evansville we have a different way of doing things. If a boat does not leave on the day she is advertised, the shipper goes down to the wharf and demands his goods and at once reships his goods on another boat. A boat can not lay at the Evansville wharf two or three days for a load; and if she does not go when advertised once, she never need come back here for freight. No Pittsburg tricks allowed at this landing.

—A boy named Harry Franklin, aged about sixteen, employed as cabin boy on the steamer Bellevernon, was arrested by officer Raynor about 12 o'clock yesterday, charged with stealing twenty five dollars from a passenger on the boat, while he was asleep in his berth, the previous night. A pocket-book containing the amount was found in the prisoner's possession at the time of his arrest. He was taken to the Hammond Street Station House and locked up.—Cin. Gazette

—The steamer Colossal has been sold by Captain Cox to Captain E. F. Devins, for the Little Rock & Fort Smith Railroad Company, and will be used to transport iron and other railroad supplies for the road. Captain Frank McCosh will command her. The Lady Pike will take the place made vacant by the Colossal.

—The Nashville Union and American, of Tuesday, says: The Reserve departed for Pittsburgh, on Sunday, with 150 passengers, 100 tons old railroad iron, together with a large number of horses and wagons, equipments belonging to Colonel Bibb, a railroad contractor, who has just received a contract on the Chespeake & Virginia Railroad.

—Capt. A. C. Dunlevy takes charge of the office and business management of the St. Louis & Peoria Packet Company, of which Capt. E. A. Sheble was late Superintendent.

—The Bellevernon, from St. Louis, to Pittsburgh, left Cincinnati on Wednesday. She has 250 tons ore to put off at Ashland. Pilots—John Ferguson and son.

—The Idlewild has increased her wheels ten inches in diameter, which will add largely to her speed.

—The new Wheeling and Parkersburg packet being completed at Wheeling is to be called Sir Knight.

—It is believed that there will be deep water in the Arkansas during the next three months.

—The Glasgow was to have left Cincinnati for New Orleans on Wednesday.

—Mr. Lon Bryson is clerking on the Mollie McPike, of Arkansas river.

—The St. Marys arrived at Wheeling on Wednesday evening.

—The R. C. Gray has gone on the docks at Louisville for repairs.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

DR. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, for Diseases of the Liver or to act as a Gentle Purgative.

All of these three Medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These Medicines are conscientiously offered to the Public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedy for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proven by the thousand cures it has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this Medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats, general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very badly diseased and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicine.

Also, in Scrofulous Diseases, these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties, which must be able to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of Consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritious articles are to be preferred, but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Seaweed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designated.

When the digestive powers are put in good order, the food has its proper effect, the system of the patient is invigorated and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of Pulmonic Syrup will effect the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the Liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These Pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, billious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the Liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs are almost entirely destroyed and all symptoms according to the judgment of the physician indicated a speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck's Almanac contains a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment and general directions how to use his medicine can be had gratis, or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. de27:d&T

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

HOME NEWS.

Amusements.—See third page of to-day's paper.

Read the advertisement of Messrs. J. L. Reed & Son, on our first page.

The Allegheny Firemen propose to turn out in the "Decoration Day" parade.

For Saturday's Eastern markets and financial reports, see the Sunday Dispatch.

The Ladies should get the Sunday Dispatch. They will find much in it to interest and amuse them.

The Procession on "Decoration Day," it is thought, will be one of the largest ever seen in the county.

Perry Palmer, a veteran drunk, was furnished with a free pass to jail by Mayor Callow yesterday.

It is probable a regiment will soon be formed of various companies of Duquesne Grays. They are all filling up rapidly.

Completed.—The new Quarter Sessions Court room is about completed, and will be ready for occupancy at the next term of the Court.

Send in your advertisements to-day for the Sunday Dispatch. Only room for a few more. Terms—a dollar a square for each insertion.

The citizens of Sewickley will meet to-night in the M. E. Church to make arrangements for the celebration of "Decoration Day."

Justice Kline, of Sharpsburgh, yesterday committed Lenhart Shuman to jail for ten days, for unseemly conduct in the streets of the borough.

The choicest stock of hosiery and gloves to be found in this city is at the New Stand Stocking Store of John Degleman & Co., No. 30 Fifth avenue.

The Sunday Dispatch, with new type, pure white paper, and full of interesting matter, will appear to-morrow. Don't fail to get a copy.

Ten Days.—Justice Heisel yesterday committed John and Mary Rode to jail for ten days each for disorderly conduct, on oath of Louisa Hover.

A fine assortment of silver and silver plated ware is offered the public at W. G. Dunseath's jewelry house, No. 56 Fifth avenue. Prices very reasonable.

Sixty Days.—John Davis, was before Justice Heisel of East Birmingham, yesterday, on a charge of vagrancy, and was committed to the work house for sixty days.

W. G. Dunseath, No. 56 Fifth avenue, has on hand an excellent assortment of ladies' gold watches and general jewelry, which he offers at very reasonable prices.

Bock Beer had two representatives before Mayor Callow yesterday morning. They returned from the official presence sadder and poorer men—by five dollars each.

The University Cadets is the title of a new military organization composed of the students at the Western University and numbering about seventy-five on the roll.

Hook and Ladder Truck No. 1 has been located for service in East Liberty by the Fire Commissioners, the incendiaries in that neighborhood necessitating such action.

Robert McDonald yesterday prevailed upon Alderman Butler to issue a warrant for the arrest of John Smith, for stealing twenty-five dollars from his house on Fulton street.

The Republican Executive Committee meets to-day at three o'clock, to determine the time of holding the primary meeting. Let there be a full attendance of the Committee.

Dr. Jackson addressed the Duquesne Greys, Co. D, in the Seventeenth ward school house Thursday night, upon the question of the hour. The literary effort was in the Doctor's usual style.

The Allegheny Fire Alarm Telegraph was tested yesterday by the Fire Engines Committee. With the exception of two or three boxes which were out of order it worked satisfactorily.

The Sunday Dispatch, the first number of which will appear to-morrow, will be a great paper. Dealers and agents should send in their orders for it at once.

Engagement Rings, gold headed canes, and United States and foreign watches, statuary, and general jewelry, can be purchased at W. G. Dunseath's old established jewelry house, No. 56 Ffith avenue.

Call at the new stand stocking store, No. 30 Fifth avenue, for all styles of hosiery, gloves and general furnishing goods for ladies' and gentlemen's wear. Prices reasonable, and the stock all new, fresh and desirable.

Disorderly House.—John Puff, alleges that Mrs. Hover, who resides on Meadow street, keeps a disorderly house. He made oath to the fact before Justice Heisel who issued a warrant for the arrest of the accused.

Last evening the sub-committee having the matter in charge met at City Hall and received the plans for the proposed new Fifth avenue market house. The plans will have to come before Councils for approval.

Arm Broken.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Ellen Montgomery, sixty-seven years of age, fell down a flight of stairs at her residence, corner Crawford and Webster streets, and broke her right arm above the elbow. Drs. Donnelly and McNary rendered medical assistance.

Slight Fire.—About eleven o'clock yesterday a slight fire occurred in the roof of a tenant house on Second avenue, in "Pipe town." An alarm was struck from box 37, and the Fire department responded. The fire was extinguished before any serious damage was done.

Relief of the Poor.—During the month of April Secretary McGonnigle, of the Allegheny Board of Poor Directors, expended $204.76 in relief of those who receive regular assistance and $30 to travelers, helping them on their way. Hardly a day passes that his office is not visited by some unfortunate.

Moving.—The work in the Prothonotary's new office has so far progressed as to be almost ready for occupancy, and the work of moving has already partially commenced. The old office is in a state of choas and confusion. The records are all piled upon the counters, so that it is almost an endless job to find anything.

Ann McDonald last evening appeared before Mayor Callow and made certain statements compiled from her diary of the month of July last, which caused the magistrate to issue a warrant for the arrest of Michael McNamara on a charge of fornication and bastardy. The parties reside in the Sixth ward, Allegheny.

Alderman McMaster's yesterday dispatched officer Blondin to Mifflin township, opposite McKeesport, to arrest Patrick and Rebecca Whalen. The Whalen's had been threatening to hang Mary Ware, who occupies a portion of the house with them, and Mary objected in the form of an information for surety of the peace.

Larceny.—Wednesday afternoon, during the absence of the family, the house of Mr. Herman Wayne, of East Birmingham, was entered and clothing to the value of fifty dollars stolen. Mr. Wayne made information before Justice Heisel yesterday, charging Louisa Wagner with the theft. A warrant was issued.

Wanted.—Two hundred newsboys to sell the Sunday Dispatch. Come along, boys, and get down your names. Will be ready for delivery by one o'clock to-morrow morning.

Housekeepers should look at those exquisite tea sets, just manufactured from new designs and in store, at No. 363 Liberty street. They are from the celebrated Keystone Pottery, and for elegance in finish and durability are unexcelled. Messrs. Kier & Co. have taken especial pains with the workmanship, challenge competition without fear of failure.

Jumped.—Albert Richey feels aggrieved that among his boarders he had one of the skipping character, Lewis Utterweiller, whom he charges with having disappeared without the formality of paying his board bill amounting to $23. To relieve Albert's distress, Alderman Koenig has issued a summons citing Lewis to appear before him and answer a charge of false pretence.

Demolished.—Yesterday Philip Forschner made information before Alderman Taylor charging Frank Askill and Robert Bell with throwing his butcher wagon over an embankment at Braddock's Fields whereby it was completely demolished. Askill proved before the Alderman he was not present at the time indicated, and was accordingly discharged. Bell was held for a hearing.

Festive Boys.—Among the urchins in the Twelfth Ward are John O'Brien and William Fuller, who occasionally vary their juvenile sports by throwing stones at a gentleman, Henry Thomson, who has in some manner incurred their displeasure, at least so Henry stated yesterday to Alderman Taylor, who was thereupon induced to issue the legal papers authorizing the arrest of the boys.

Foresight.—Thomas Shortall alleges he took a drink in John Devlin's saloon, Penn street, yesterday, and laid down twenty-five cents in payment, all of which Devlin kept, stating that he would credit him (Shortall) with the excess in advance for future drinks. Shortall had Devlin brought before Alderman Taylor on a charge of larceny, but the officer, on learning the facts, dismissed the frivolous case.

Mr. John Megraw, No. 45 Ninth street, deals wholesale and retail in tobacco, snuff, cigars and all articles in that trade. Country merchants will find it an advantage to deal with him. His stock is fresh and very large, and his terms cannot be excelled. All lovers of the weed should patronize Megraw. He can appreciate their wants, and can supply them immediately with the best article manufactured.

The Sunday Dispatch will contain the latest telegrams from all parts of the world, and specials from all important points up to the hour of going to press.

Four Months.—Hugh Madison, an account of whose doings we published yesterday, has been provided with lodgings at the work house for the space of four months. Pity it could not have been four years, as the community could well dispense with his presence without sustaining any loss whatever. Mollie Wilson, the girl he abused, appeared at the Mayor's office and made infyrmation, charging Madison with assault and battery.

Not Coming.—The parties whom we announced a day or two since had been arrested in Cincinnati, and would be brought back to this city are, it appears, not coming. The one for whom the officers had a requisition escaped from the officer who had him in custody and left the city before the Pittsburgh officers arrived there, and Johnny Robinson was taken before the Court yesterday morning on a writ of habeas corpus and discharged.

John Fowler paid ten dollars to Deputy Mayor Nichols yesterday, for cutting capers in the stables of the Citizens' Passenger Railway, Thursday night, while intoxicated. He hadn't the money at first, but didn't like the workhouse, and persuaded an officer to accompany him to a pawnbroker's, where he "raised the wind" by pledging his coat and vest. Liberty is precious.

Malice.—Louisa Wrenley stated at Alderman Boister's yesterday that Justinia Dietsch had exhibited a malicious feeling toward her by emptying a bucket of dirty water upon her from a second story window. The parties reside neighbors in the Third ward, Allegheny, and Louisa was passing through an alley between their houses, which has been a cause of dispute for some time. The magistrate instructed officer Shaffer to escort the irate dame to his office, where the matter will be inquired into.

A Soldier in Trouble—There is a soldier at the arsenal who is likely to get into trouble. Yesterday two storekeepers in Lawrenceville made information before Deputy Mayor Nichols against him for false pretense. They allege he procured $20 worth of cigars and other articles—$10 from each—by representing he had an amount of back pay due him, which was subsequently discovered to be false. The accused, C. H. Barker, will be brought before the Deputy Mayor to-day, on a requisition to answer the charge.

Singular Fatal Accident.—Mr. Samuel Dean, residing near Baden, Beaver county, met with a singular accident on Thursday evening, which resulted in his death. He was working about a circular saw, when a large splinter from the wood which was being sawed glanced off and struck him in the left eye, penetrating the skull. It could only be removed by the united efforts of two men. Medical attention was summoned, but notwithstanding all efforts the victim after much suffering expired yesterday morning.

With the letter H the first volume Zell's Encyclopedia was completed. We have already spoken frequently of the varied excellencies of this work, which, with its brevity, comprehensiveness, reliability and illustrations, forms one of the most valuable recent contributions to the literature of reference. We find upon looking over this completed first volume, that there is much more in it worthy of admiration and praise than we had any previous idea of, and, taking this as a sample, we think we may expect equally great things from the remainder of the book.

The Semi-Annual Convention of the American Christian Missionary Society will be held in the First Christian Church, corner of Beaver street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, commencing next Tuesday, 17th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M.

Delegates are expected from all parts of the country. The following gentlemen are expected to deliver addresses: Prof. Robert Richardson, Bethany, W. Va., Rev. J. S. Lamar, of Georgia; Dr. J. W. Barbee, of Mississippi, and others.

The above named Society for the spread of the Gospel is under the control of the Disciples. The business matter of the Convention will be transacted during the day, and in the evenings of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday public addresses will be delivered.

Fire Last Night.

Last night, about half past eleven o'clock, a fire broke out in a shed attached to Smith's National Foundry, Twenty-third street. The building contained some patterns, but otherwise was not of much account. The alarm struck from box 62 brought out the engines of the Third District, and they prevented the spread of the flames, although the shed and contents were destroyed. The loss will amount to about $800 or $1,000, upon which there is a full insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Prospective Parricide.

Alderman McMasters yesterday received the information of Dennis McCafferty, an old man from Temperanceville, against his son, Robert McCafferty. Dennis says the family lived peaceably together until a few days ago, when his daughter was married and set up housekeeping. The remainder of the family concluded to live with her and leave the old man alone in the world, and yesterday when he went to the married daughter's house, his son Robert drove him away and threatened to demolish him if he ever returned; hence he fears his life. Officer Blondin was armed with the necessary papers to secure the arrest of Robert.

Mortuary Report.

The following is a list of the interments in the city of Pittsburgh from May 2d to May 10th, as reported by J. Guy. McCandless, Physician of Board of Health:

Second Presbyterian Church.

The services in this church, to-morrow, will be somewhat unusual. It is proposed to celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of the settlement of the pastor, Rev. W. D. Howard, D.D. The services will be in the morning at 10½, in the afternoon at 3, and in the evening at 7½ o'clock. In the morning Rev. Joseph W. Blythe, a former pastor of this church, will be present and deliver an address, and Dr. Howard will preach a sermon reviewing the past twenty-one years. In the afternoon and evening a number of distinguished clergymen will deliver addresses appropriate to the occasion. On Monday evening there will be a reunion of the present and former members of the congregation, in the lecture and Sabbath-school rooms. The Church will be open at 6½ o'clock, and the reception take place at 7½ o'clock.

Triple Funeral.

A funeral under the ordinary circumstances is a solemn sight and impresses upon the mind the fact that there is an end to all things mortal; but when attended with such unusual circumstances as those connected with the triple funeral of James Mooney, Matthias Wilhelm, Sr. and Matthias Wilhelm, Jr., the unfortunate men who were suffocated in a vault in East Birmingham on Wednesday, the sight is doubly impressive and solemn. It was a very unusual sight to see three hearses each bearing a corpse, in one funeral procession. The procession was one of the largest of its character that has been witnessed in this city for a number of years. The cortege was headed by a full brass band, a section of company A of the Duquesne Greys, followed and next came over one hundred men of Post 151, of the G. A. R. The hearses came next, and were followed by eighty-eight carriages and fifty-nine buggies.

A Deserter Comes Under.

Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock a very genteel and vigorous looking young man made his appearance at the Allegheny Mayor's office and delivered himself up as a deserter. He said he had enlisted in the United States navy several years ago, and after undergoing "life on the ocean wave" until it became monotonous, concluded to drop it. He was detailed to duty on the frigate "Vermont," and deserted the vessel in January, 1867, while it lay in New York harbor. He had managed to keep out of the way, but at last wearied at the constant care to conceal himself, had concluded to go back. He gave his name as Charles Carr and said he had parents residing in the Sixth ward, Allegheny—a fact which was corroborated by several persons who recognized him. His three years' vacation was enough for him on land, and he seemed anxious to get back to the "briny deep." An officer escorted him out to the Arsenal where he was taken charge of by the Commandant who will await orders in the case from Washington.

St. James Church Fair, Temperanceville,

Will open on Friday evening, the 13th inst. The following valuable articles will be voted for.

For the most popular man, a splendid U. S. Watch Co. gold watch, with chronometer balance and heat and cold adjustment. The trade mark is Fredk. Atherton & Co., Marion, N. J. This fine watch is worth $225. Four candidates have entered the lists, and the contest promises to be lively.

For the lady who will receive the highest number of votes, a magnificent silver tea set. The friends of several ladies are exerting themselves on behalf of their respective favorites.

For the most amiable young lady, a beautiful gold cross and neck-chain, warranted fourteen karat gold.

The watch, silverware, &c., were purchased from W. G. Dunseath, the well-known jeweler, No. 56 Fifth avenue, which is a sufficient guarantee of their value and sterling qualities.

For the most popular saloon-keeper, a fine triple-plated silver ice-pitcher and salver.

Rev. F. L. Tobin, Pastor.
Temperanceville table, Miss Mary Cronin.
West Pittsburgh table, Miss Annie Ford.
Union Borough table, Miss Jennie Carlin.
Refreshment table, Mrs. Casberger and Miss Maggie Burns.

What of the Robbins Wood Preserving Process?

Some time in the past year it was given out that there was about to be established in Pittsburgh or Allegheny a branch of the Pennsylvania Wood Preserving Company. It was understood that Hon. Jno. E. Parke, Frank Rahm and others had committed themselves to the enterprise, and we were shortly to have all needful facilities, here in our midst, for applying and illustrating the new discovery. What has become of it? The gentlemen named do not usually put their hand to the plow and then look back. It cannot be for want of energy and means, nor do we think it can be from any distrust of the efficacy and great utility of the process, which appeared to proceed upon sound scientific principles and to infallably produce the desired results. There are a thousand uses to which wood is applied in which it would be of very great advantage to have it rendered unshrinkable, unexpandable and impervious to air or water, and not subject to decay from vicissitudes of atmosphere. All this was to be effected by the "Robbins Process," which, by means of an apparatus contrived for the purpose the wood is surrounded by hot vapors which at a certain temperature, expels from it all its sap and moisture and fills the empty pores with the vaporized constituents of coal tar, among which carbolic acid or creasote of coal are known as powerful preservers of animal or vegetable organic matter. We understand that this process has found favor in the east, and that large establishments are successfully operated at Brooklyn and Boston. We think one rightly conducted would or should be equally successful in Pittsburgh. When shall we have it?

The Continental.

There is no better restaurant in the city than the Continental, Fifth avenue, below the Post Office. Go when you will at any hour of the day and a meal fit for the dantiest appetite will be placed before you. The saloon is open from six in the morning until midnight, and is managed with such tact that no confusion is ever experienced in providing for the wants of customers. To-day a grand dinner will be set up comprising edibles, the mention of which would be to create an appetite. The best way to test the character of the establishment would be to drop in to-day and get a lunch or dinner. One visit will be enough to satisfy the most credulous that nowhere in the city can a more varied, healthful repast be had for the money.

THE PEOPLES' MONEY.

The City Treasurer and Councils at Loggerheads—An Interesting Financial Dilemma What is to be done, and Where Does the Interest Belong?

For several days past a rumor has been current in the city to the effect that City Treasurer Cochran had refused to conform to the provisions of the recently adopted ordinance providing for the safe keeping of the city moneys in banks approved by Councils, where interest might be obtained. The matter has sufficiently ripened for publication, inasmuch as the Treasurer openly announces that he will not deposit the money, and that he proposes to disregard the ordinance and contest the authority of Councils to impose such a regulation upon him. He has obtained legal assistance to sustain him in the court if need be, holding that he is advised that so long as Councils have not relieved his bondsmen from the obligations they have assumed that they have no authority to order the moneys to be kept at interest for the benefit of the city. This is high ground, and we do not believe can be sustained. The ordinance of the city code, bearing especially on the question, reads:

"That the Treasurer shall give bond to the said city in such sum as the City Councils may, from time to time, direct, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; and shall, before he enters upon said duties, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before the Mayor of said city honestly to keep and account for all public moneys and property entrusted to his care; and if such Treasurer shall knowingly violate said oath or affirmation; he shall be deemed guilty of perjury. The said Treasurer shall keep the public money in such place and manner as the Councils shall direct, and shall verify his cash account at least once every month, to the satisfaction of the Finance Committee of Councils; and upon the affidavit of a majority of said Committee of any default therein; the said Treasurer shall be forthwith suspended from office until further action of Councils; and the District Court of Allegheny county shall, on application based on such affidavit, forthwith order a judgment to be entered in said Court in favor of said city, on the official bond of the said Treasurer, for the amount of alleged defalcation; which said judgment shall be a lien upon all the real estate of the defendants therein, and a writ of feri facias may be issued thereon, and the like proceedings had as upon other judgments."

It will be perceived from the foregoing that Councils have full authority to direct in what place and manner the funds shall be kept. In advertising for acceptable depositories and designating several such by regular election, Councils virtually and legally relieved the Treasurer's bondsmen from all responsibility for any moneys deposited under their direction; and the defense set up is wholly unwarranted by the circumstances.

The stubborn refusal of the Treasurer to recognize the authority of Councils in the case has been a subject of consideration with the Finance Committee, and the members are undetermined how to proceed. With some four hundred thousand dollars cash deposited to his own individual credit in banks and other places, the Treasurer seems to be master of the situation, especially as his bail amounts to only one hundred thousand dollars. If he is suspended he can throw the matter into court, and while awaiting the slow process of litigation, can quietly pocket the accruing interest and make as good a thing out of the custody of the money as if all things were going smoothly and no ordinance requiring the interest to go to the benefit of the city had place on the city code. Indeed, if so disposed, he could retain all the money and permit his sureties to settle up the amount of their bonds and let the city secure the balance as best it could. The Finance Committee are therefore considerably nonplussed as to a plan of procedure, but it is probable that they will arrive at some conclusion at their meeting next Monday night and devise a way of compelling a sworn public servant to heed the command of his master—the people. The position the Treasurer has taken in this matter invites the heartiest condemnation of all citizens, as each tax payer is individually interested in having the money well and safely kept and at interest for the benefit of the city. Councils have the right to provide how and in what manner the funds shall be kept and in refusing to acknowledge their authority in the matter the Treasurer is guilty of a gross impropriety and misdemeanor in office, and develops an unfaithfulness to the public welfare highly censurable and worthy official rebuke and punishment.

Now, as the ball has been opened we should like to see the members of the Finance Committee pay their attentions to the general working of the treasury machinery, for the air is loaded with rumors of financial mismanagement and promiscuous axe-grinding in that department of the city government. The people are much interested as they are the rightful owners of the immense sum of money locked up in the treasurer's hands, and are anxious that every dollar should be made the most of, and that no private ends or considerations should interfere to prevent the adoption and carrying forward of a judicious financial system which may never so little reduce the burdens of taxation. The people are with the Finance Committee, and look to them to act with firmness and determination in the matter, and, if possible, to effectually and foreves wipe out the system of private speculation and profit attached to the custody of the public moneys.

THE COURTS.

United States Circuit Court—Judges McKennan and McCandless.

FRIDAY, May 13.—The case of Cline vs. the Hartford Insurance Company of Connecticut, previously reported, was concluded. The jury found for the plaintiff for the full amount of insurance claimed, $6,657 62.

On motion of Geo. H. Christy, Esq., Jos. C. Clayton, of New York city, was duly qualified and admitted to practice.

The next case taken up was that of Wm. Stitt vs. A. & F. W. Huidekoper. This was an action in trespass for damages. Stitt claims that he was employed as agent by defendants, for the sale of oil lands in the oil regions. He claims that they had agreed to give him all over $30,000 he might obtain for a certain tract and that being valuable oil territory, he had sold it for between $70,000 and $80,000. Defendants refused to convey the land, and the suit is brought to recover the amount in excess, some $43,000. The defendant claims that plaintiff was not empowered to sell, but only to become purchaser. The case will occupy fully one week.

Common Pleas—Judge Stowe.

FRIDAY, May 14.—In the case of Hudspath vs. O'Neil, reported yesterday, the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,500.

In the case of Coursin vs. Shaffer, previously reported, a juror was withdrawn and a non-suit entered.

The case of Pettit vs. Phillips was referred to arbitrators.

Wm. C. Thompson vs. Caleb Russell, action to recover for rent alleged to be due and unpaid, the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $5.75.

The next case taken up was that of Victoria Gisslor vs. Adam Klingman, action to recover for "words spoken," or slander. It is alleged that the defendant said the plaintiff was not a decent woman. The case was on trial when Court adjourned.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

FRIDAY, May 13.—The cases of Barton vs. Black and McRoberts vs. same defendant, previously reported, was resumed and were still on trial when Court adjourned.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—A large and select audience assembled at the Opera House last evening, which was the occasion of Mr. Edwin Adams' benefit. "Wild Oats" was presented in a highly acceptable manner. The cast was an exceedingly good one throughout and as a natural consequence, the entertainment was highly enjoyed by the audience. A grand matinee will be given this afternoon, and an entertainment this evening.

HUGH S. FLEMING,
Sheriff.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE,
PITTSBURGH, May 13th, 1870.

Rather Surprised.

"Good morning, Mr. Twiggs!"

"Good morning, friend Beardsley."

"Mr. Twiggs, I see you were at the fire last night."

"Why, where was the fire? I did not hear anything about it; and I did not sleep any too well, I must say, for I had a fearful headache all night."

"Why, in fact, I don't know where the fire was; but I see that beautiful new suit of clothes, and thought there must have been a fire."

"Ah! ah! Quite a joke, indeed, and I could not see the point. Take a Cigar."

"Thank you, Mr. Twiggs; a very good cigar indeed. By-the-way that suit fits tip top. Where did you get it made? It is very strange I cannot get a suit to fit like that, and at the same time I pay large prices. If I was certain I could get a suit to fit as good and look as well as that does on you I would get one to-day."

"Well, to tell you the truth, Mr. Beardsley, I am as surprised as you, and I will tell you how I came to get it. I left home this morning with the calculation of getting a new suit made. As I was walking down Sixth street my eye caught that beautiful sign of Tobias' Clothing House. As I was never in there before I thought I would give him a trial. Stepping into the store I was surprised to see the immense stock of piece goods and ready-made clothing; and, in fact, everything belonging to that line of business. Asking to see some piece goods for a suit, to be made the next day, as I was going East, I was told by the young salesman that they could not have it ready so soon, but said he was sure he could suit me in ready-made garments if I would like to buy. As I had no other business of any account just at that time to attend to, I told him if it was not too much trouble I would like to look at a few of his business suits. Why, Mr. Beardsley, would you believe the second suit he showed me was just the kind I wanted and I was astonished at the way they were made. I asked him if they were made for any particular person, as they were all double stitched. He said the reason they are made so well is that we make them ourselves. But the best joke of all is that after examining the suit thoroughly, I came to the conclusion that it would cost at least $25 or $30, as I have paid as high as $45 for just such a suit. When I came to settle the bill I was startled to hear him say it was only $18. I asked him if he did not make a mistake in the price, and was informed he had not. Now, Mr. Beardsley, I want you to go along up to the store with me, and if you are not suited in quality and price I will pay you a tip-top hat."

"What store did you say it was at, Tobias'?"

"Why, the cheapest clothing House in Pittsburgh, No. 13 Sixth street."

"Well, I cannot go to-day, but I promise to go with you to-morrow."

The persons most easily won over to Singer's improved Sewing Machine, are those who have been accustomed to use other machines.
STRAW & MORTON,

When comparisons have been made by skillful mechanics between rival sewing machines their judgment has been invariably in favor of Singer's improved machine.

New Books For Sale by John W. Pittock, Publisher, Bookseller and News Dealer, Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Bab Ballads; or, Much Sound and Little Sense. By W. S. Gilbert. With 113 illustrations by the author. Square 12mo, cloth, gilt edges. $1.75.

The ballads will rank with the best of Thackeray, Bon Gaulter, or Ingoldsby. Let every one who in these dull times has the blues, procure a copy as the cheapest remedy. While it is nearly perfect fac simile of the English copy it is only half the price.

The Gentleman's Stable Guide; by Robert McClure, M. D., V. S. Illustrated 16mo, cloth, gilt. $1.50.

Pimples on the Face, Eruptions, Blotches, Scrofulous diseases, and all sores arising from impure blood, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Alterative Extract or Golden Medical Discovery. For Bronchitis, Laryngitis and all chronic, severe or lingering coughs nothing equals it.

Sold by druggists, or send three and a quarter dollars to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and get three bottles free of Express charges.

The Spring Stock of Henry G. Hale, Merchant Tailor, at corner of Penn avenue and Sixth street, is now large and complete. Monsieur Bonpain continues to preside at the cutting. tf

Ladies desire what men admire. And this little thing is Beauty. What do we say is beautiful? A transparent complexion and a luxuriant head of hair. What will produce these? Hagan's Magnolia Balm will make any lady of thirty appear but twenty; and Lyon's Kathairon will keep every hair in its place, and make it grow like the April grass. It prevents the hair from turning gray, eradicates Dandruff, and is the finest Hair Dressing in the world, and at only half ordinary cost. If you want to get rid of Sallowness, Pimples, Ring-marks, Moth-patches, etc., don't forget the Magnolia Balm. tthst
